TORCHES OWN HOUSE

Beatnik Bangs On Bongos, Then Burns Building

Victor Andrew Gipson went down by the creek near his Tamalpais Valley cabin Saturday and beat his bongo drums.

Yesterday, said police and sheriff's deputies, the bearded Gipson, described as a beatnik, writer and laborer, set three fires in his three-room frame home at 363 Pine Hill Road, then stood outside with his hands in his pockets, watching the house burn.

Today 27-year-old Gipson was in Marin County jail on a charge of arson, held in $1,050 bail.

Gipson's wife and two small children left him a week ago, deputies said. They had no arguments, said Gipson, just simple disagreements.

Why did he start the fire? He told deputies he didn't know why; he just wanted to set the house on fire.

Carl Mead Jr., an off-duty Mill Valley policeman, on his way to a trap shoot, drove by the house as it was burning. Mead sped to the Tam Valley Fire Department and reported the fire.

Three units, about 12 volunteers and two paid firemen responded. "We found fire coming out three windows. The whole interior was on fire," said Chief Herbert Owens. With high pressure pumps, the blaze was put out almost immediately.

As sheriff's deputies arrived, Gipson was still standing outside, watching the fire department at work.

Chief Owens said Gipson had piled his wife's belongings in the middle of the floor in each room, then set the fires. He estimated damage to structure and furnishings at $3,000.

Neighbors had called the sheriff Saturday when Gipson was beating his bongo drums. No arrest was made, however.

Sit-In Appeal Due Top Court Ruling

Tribunal Agrees To Hear Louisiana Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today agreed to rule on appeals by 17 Negro students who were arrested in "sit-in" demonstrations at white lunch counters in Baton Rouge, La.

Their appeals are the first which will be heard by the Supreme Court as the result of prosecutions of sit-in demonstrators in the South.

The order said the date to heard arguments on the appeals will be set later. The students contended in three separate appeals that a state has no power to compel segregation of races and, therefore, Louisiana could not impose criminal dissatisfaction at "being relegated to second-class status in public establishments."

ATTENDED COLLEGE

The 17 Negroes, all of whom attended Southern University, were sentenced to four months' imprisonment each. Three months of the sentence could be suspended by payment of a $100 fine by each.

They were arrested while sitting at lunch counters in Sitman's drugstore, in the Kress store, and in the Greyhound bus station in Baton Rouge.

Their appeals asked a Supreme Court ruling that they were denied rights guaranteed by the equal protection and due process clauses of the U.S. Constitution.

A state, the appeals contended, may not use its power to compel racial segregation in private establishments which are open to the public, and has no power "to stifle protests against such segregation."

LOUISIANA LAW

The arrests were made under a Louisiana law which prohibits the commission of "any act in such a manner as to unereasonably disturb or alarm the public." The students in the appeals denied they did anything that disturbed or alarmed the public.

Instead, the appeals said, the Negroes were arrested "merely because they were Negros and sought food service at lunch counters maintained for white persons."

CLARK GABLE'S WIDOW GIVES BIRTH TO SON

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Clark Gable's widow gave birth today to an eight-pound boy.

Both Mrs. Kay Gable and the baby, delivered by Caesarean section, were reported in good condition at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital.

The time of birth was 7:48 a.m.

Gable, long-time movie hero, died in the same hospital last Nov. 16 of a heart attack. This was his first child and he had looked forward eagerly to its birth.

The child, the attending doctor said, bears a strong resemblance to the father.

Mrs. Gable's sister, Mrs. Gordon Nesser, said there had been no decision yet on a name for the baby.

The doctor said the baby was born 18 minutes after he started surgery at 7:30 a.m.

Kennedy Asks Congress To Boost Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy asked Congress today to boost next year's budget by nearly 500 million dollars.

He sought, among other things, additional funds to step up State Department activities in Africa, strengthen the U.S. information Agency's program in Africa and Latin America and expand the U.S. staff at the United Nations.

Kennedy also proposed increases of nearly 41 million dollars for various Interior Department operations and more than 442 million dollars for the Agriculture Department.

The latter would be mainly to strengthen research, watershed, forestry, conservation and school lunch programs, loan programs of the Rural Electrification Administration and Farmers Home Administration. Agriculture funds also would repay the Commodity Credit Corp. for costs and losses.

For the State Department, Kennedy actually proposed a net decrease of $130,000 because of reductions in contributions to international organizations and a re-programming of funds for international fisheries commission.

Crash Hurts 3, Snarls 101 Traffic

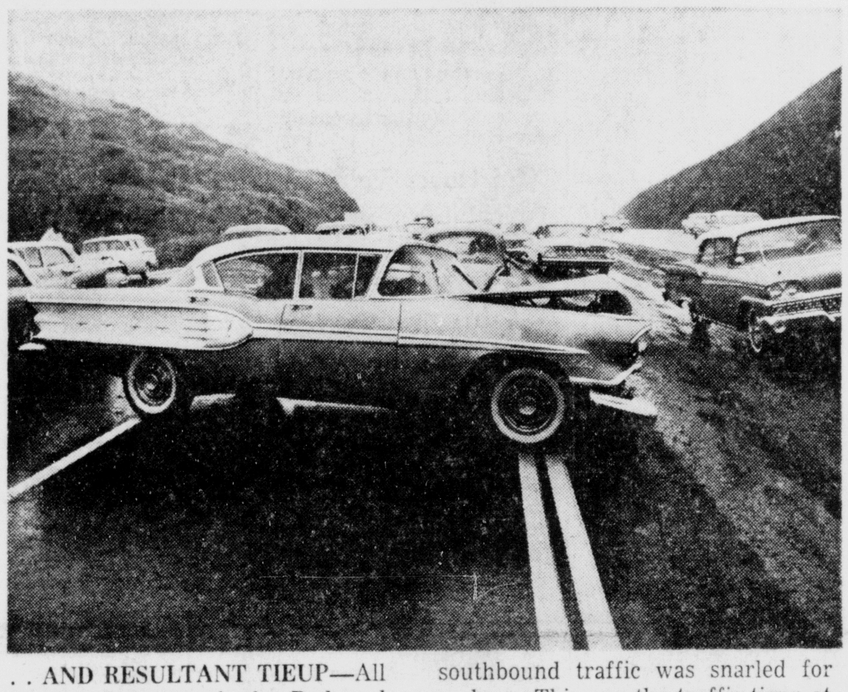
A northbound automobile crossed the divider strip of the Redwood Highway on Alto Hill yesterday about 3 p.m. to set up a three-car crash that injured three persons and snarled heavy traffic for an hour.

Shirley Irene Hall, 22, of San Leandro told California Highway Patrolman Sam Thomas that another northbound car cut her off, forcing her to cross the divider. Her car collided with a southbound auto driven by Margaret Vaughn, 48, of Fairfax. It, in turn, was hit from the rear by another southbound auto driven by Howard Pors, 52, of 261 Fawn Drive, Sleepy Hallow.

The three cars slewed across northbound and southbound lanes of the highway. As other drivers pulled to a stop, all southbound lanes were clogged.

Miss Hall, most seriously hurt, suffered what was described by attendants at Merritt Hospital in Oakland today as an "acute low back injury." Her condition was reported generally good, however, at Merritt Hospital, where she was transferred by Marin Ambulance after emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Jack Ellison, 24, of Los Angeles, a passenger with Miss Hall, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a hand cut. Margaret Vaughn was treated at the same hospital for a small neck cut, neck strain and sprained right foot.



. . . AND RESULTANT TIEUP—All southbound lanes of the Redwood Highway were clogged by the Alto Hill crash. Heavy Sunday afternoon southbound traffic was snarled for an hour. This was the traffic tieup at its height. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

Death Of Cuban Envoy Postpones U.N. Meet

UNITED NATIONS, N.W. (UPI) —The chairman of Cuba's United Nations delegation collapsed and died of a heart attack today, causing an adjournment of the General Assembly session until tomorrow.

Dr. Manuel Bisbe, 55, Cuba's permanent delegate to the U.N. since 1959, had just finished lunch and was chatting with Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa outside the Assembly hall when he collapsed. He was pronounced dead 35 minutes later.

Assembly president Frederick H. Boland announced Bisbe's death to the delegates at the opening of the Assembly session, and asked for a moment of silence. Then as a mark of mourning and sympathy, Boland adjourned the Assembly until tomorrow morning.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko had been the only scheduled speaker for this afternoon's Assembly session. Gromyko had been expected to press for action on the Congo issue, and U.S. diplomats felt that the meeting would have served only as a propaganda forum for the Russians in their campaign to oust U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold. Gromyko had asked for the session.

Meanwhile, Hammarskjold had met with his 18-nation advisory committee on the Congo in preparation for the Assembly session. Informed sources said the advisory group had received a report from the Congo conciliation commission for study. Details of the report were not released.

The commission's findings and recommendations were expected to be received by the whole U.N. membership tomorrow. The report was said to cover some 250 pages, including several annexes.

The General Assembly will take up any phase of the commission report that requires action. Most assembly members were expected to base their speeches on the findings.

BUT RAIN MAY RETURN

Spring Arrives Here In Burst Of Sunshine

Spring came with sunshine today to a soaked Marin County.

The vernal equinox, marking the official advent of spring, was at 12:32 p.m. today. It arrived as Marin basked in warm sunshine after a Sunday rainstorm that helped raise the level of low water storage reservoirs.

The sun will stay, forecast the U.S. Weather Bureau, through tomorrow. But there may be two days of rain this week, said the bureau.

The rain that soaked Marin yesterday was a mere sprinkle compared to rain and snowstorms that swept the Midwest and East.

San Rafael recorded only .29 of an inch in the Sunday storm.

In Mill Valley, where a half inch was recorded, a large pine tree keeled over in the soft earth on property of M. Bruvry at 24 Tamalpais Avenue, blocking the street from 3:30 to 4:15 p.m.

The Chevy Chase district of Larkspur reported .84 of an inch of rain. At the Larkspur City Hall, the fall was .8 of an inch. Other rainfall figures around the county included: Muid Woods, .4, Belvedere, .4, Tamalpais Valley, .32, Sausalito, .3, Point Reyes Station, .27, Woodacre, .25, San Anselmo, .16 and Novato, .06.

The vernal equinox means that tonight's darkness and tomorrow's daylight will be of equal length: an even 12 hours each.

Suspect Flees County Jail

A man being held on a car theft charge walked through an unlocked cell door of the Marin County jail yesterday afternoon and disappeared.

Warren Straw III, 24, of 412 Pine Street, Sausalito, had been arrested at his home Saturday night on a traffic warrant.

Sausalito police arrested Straw after checking a parking ticket and finding that the plates on his car were from another auto that had been stripped. Police checked the motor number on Straw's car and found that it had been stolen in San Francisco last Nov. 25.

Straw was placed in a cell with John Norton, 19, of Muir Beach, who was arrested for traffic tickets. The cell door was left unlocked while Norton was being bailed out.

Three Accused Of Perjury In Traffic Trial

Three men today faced perjury indictments brought by the Marin County Grand Jury as the result of the trio's testimony in Feb. 15 traffic violation trial in Marin Municipal Court.

They are Melvin A. Dunlap, 27, of 185 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley; Thomas J. Fenton, 24, of 2015 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, and James R. Detels, 27, of 619 Locust Street, Sausalito.

Dunlap was tried in Judge Joseph G. Wilson's court on a charge of driving while his driver license was suspended. Fenton and Detels testified, as did Dunlap, that Dunlap wasn't driving, but got in drivers' seat to trick police.

Officer William Walsh of Mill Valley and Officer David Cooper of Sausalito, who happened to be with Walsh at the time, both testified they saw Dunlap driving across a Mill Valley street on Jan. 18. Dunlap was found guilty and sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Deputy District Atty. Charles L. Convis took the case to the grand jury, which indicted all three on perjury charges.

Fenton was arrested Saturday afternoon and was held in

Planners Postpone Rural Rezoning Action; Insufficient Notice Charged

The Marin County Planning Commission, faced with a barrage of complaints of allegedly insufficient notice of its planned action, today put off decision on rezoning the county's rural lands to June 19.

The proposal to zone all lands now under "interim zoning" by amendment to the county's ordinance 264 was the first item on the planning commission's agenda for today.

Two hours and many protests after the meeting opened, Chairman William F. Upton ordered the three-month delay.

Many objectors were on hand for what principal planner B. D. Dobbs said was the fourth hearing on a matter dating back to December. There seemed considerable divergence as to what the ordinance meant to do or would do.

The San Geronimo Valley was especially well represented and a letter of protest from the San Geronimo Valley Assn. was among several requesting postponement until everybody could be notified.

Capt. Adolph S. Oko, Point Reyes Station-Inverness realty man, brought the lack of notice to a point when he arose to exclaim that he was present only because of another hearing since he'd had no notice "though I have an equity, a livelihood."

This touched off attorney Bryan McCarthy, who at a previous hearing asked elimination of Mount Tamalpais Cemetery from new zoning but who declared today that "you're starting from a basically wrong premise. You're upside down."

"If you're going to do something to affect the whole county," said McCarthy, "why didn't you post and mail to the whole county as you correspondingly do in smaller matters?

"It's costly, but is it more costly than the damage you might do? Look at the many non- resident owners, getting no notice at all. You should continue at least two months and send notices to everybody.

Loud applause greeted this.

Attention Fairfax School District

I feel that we can have the finest district in the county which will give our children the best education possible and increase our property values. This can be done WITHIN our ability to pay and WELL WITHIN THE AUTHORIZED TAX RATE.

To do this I need your help. I need it this coming Tuesday, March 21st, and I need it on election day, April 18th. Your interest Tuesday should influence the board to delay certain proposals until after the election. Your VOTES then would guide the board on how to act on these CERTAIN PROGRAMS.

Attention Fairfax School District

Tuesday night, March 21st, is most important to all of us. The school board is scheduled to meet and (probably) pass on a program without the people being fully aware of WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT.

Join me in asking our School Superintendent to delay certain of his proposals until after the election on April 18th. Otherwise, we stand to be caught with EXPENSIVE programs we do not need or desire. In other words, YOU should have a voice.
The basic issues of this Tuesday meeting and the coming election are:

a. Do we want (what I term) a Junior High at Central for the 7th and 8th grades? No!
b. Do we want our children to have a good basic education, or do we want part of their time spent in a woodworking shop or home economics class?

Attention Fairfax School District
Tuesday night, March 21st, is most important to all of us. The school board is scheduled to meet and (probably) pass on a program without the people being fully aware of WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT.
Join me in asking our School Superintendent to delay certain of his proposals until after the election on April 18th. Otherwise, we stand to be caught with EXPENSIVE programs we do not need or desire. In other words, YOU should have a voice.
The basic issues of this Tuesday meeting and the coming election are:
a. Do we want (what I term) a Junior High at Central for the 7th and 8th grades? No!
b. Do we want our children to have a good basic education, or do we want part of their time spent in a woodworking shop or home economics class?
—Bill Shirley, 131 Oak Manor Dr., Fairfax
Candidate for School Board

No Progress In Laos Crisis Parley Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—No indications of progress toward ending the Laotian crisis have stemmed from a lengthy U.S.—Soviet conference on cold war issues that threaten to become hot.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko restated in detail the U.S. and Soviet positions during an extraordinary five-hour conference.

The two, accompanied by top advisers, began talking over lunch at the State Department at 1 p.m. and did not part until dusk.

A joint statement, couched in very general terms, said only that they hoped their "open and frank discussion will lead to a better mutual understanding of the positions and attitudes of both governments and may facilitate the consideration of outstanding problems."

What they talked about was described as "a variety of subjects of mutual interest," but it was learned that the major emphasis was on the Laotian crisis.

Other subjects reportedly included the Congo, Berlin, United Nations problems and disarmament.

The Geneva conference on a nuclear test ban which resumes tomorrow, also may have been mentioned.

Rusk is believed to have made it clear to Gromyko, and thus to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, that the United States has no intention of allowing beleaguered Laos to be taken over by Communist rebels.

The United States has several times expressed deep concern over a Communist air lift of arms to pro-Communist Pathet rebels, which threatens to lead to an air race on both sides.

The U.S. position is that a truly neutral government should be established in Laos.

Humane Society Director Retires

Mrs. Maurice Gale of Belvedere is retiring from the board of the Humane Society of Marin County, President Frederic D. Kerr announced today.

Mrs. Gale, second vice president, has been on the board for 10 years.

James Grossi, Novato dairy rancher, was named to fill the vacancy on the board.

New Moisturizing Colonaid Stops

CONSTIPATION DUE TO DEHYDRATION

without gag, bloat or gripe

Most constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that loses so much moisture that its contents become so dry they block the bowel; so shrunken they fail to stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE colon to action; to a normal urge to purge. And, of all laxatives, only new COLONAID possesses its great moisturizing capacity plus its stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so gentle it has been hospital-proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation overnight. So, for positive relief from constipation, get amazing, moisturizing new COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢

Storms Mark Spring Start In Mid-U.S.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, sleet and icy rains marked the arrival of spring in the nation's midsection.

With calendar spring beginning today, a wintry storm plastered the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles with snow and spread sleet and rain eastward through Missouri and Oklahoma.

Amarillo, Tex., reported two inches of new snow atop a five-inch cover. Dodge City, Kan. reported a like fall.

The Weather Bureau advised that up to four inches of snow could be expected throughout the area before the storm slackened.

The Southwest measured snows up to a foot deep from a weekend storm that closed several major roads, stranded motorists and disrupted power and communications in a number of communities.

Subfreezing weather gripped a broad area of the Northeast during the early morning, from New England through most of the Great Lakes and upper Mississippi Valley into the central Rockies and parts of the southern Plains.

U.S. Probing Price Fixing In Foods, Drugs

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy has disclosed the Justice Department is investigating widespread price fixing in an attempt to "lower prices" of bread, meat, milk, drugs and other consumer products.

Kennedy said yesterday that price-fixing cases were being checked in "almost every major metropolitan area . . . including the city of New York and the state of New York, where rather important cases appear to be developing."

FLORIDA INDICTMENT

He pointed out that an indictment has been returned recently in Florida in connection with the bread industry and said that price fixing "is far more widespread than people realize . . . almost across the board in certain sections."

"It has a tremendous effect on the community where prices are fixed," Kennedy said. "As we've seen in the case of the electrical companies, when the conspiracy broke down, the price to the consumer and to the government fell about 30 to 40 per cent.

"I think the same thing happens where there is price fixing in these other areas," he added. "If we can have a vigorous program in this field, we're going to be able to lower prices in some of these important areas."

Besides the electrical equipment and bread cases, he said "we have a price-fixing conspiracy under investigation dealing with meat . . . one dealing with milk . . . one dealing with electrical equipment—also with drugs."

OTHER PLANS

In a radio-TV interview with Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N. Y.), Kennedy also said he planned:

1. A concentrated crackdown on organized crime, including legislative proposals seeking to empower federal agents to break up interstate crime communications for gambling and other purposes.

2. To abandon plans to seek creation of a national crime commission. "We are now able to accomplish a good number of the things that I thought should be done through a national crime commission within the Justice Department," although he "certainly wouldn't be opposed to it."

3. To check into the touchy problem of getting big-time racketeers out of professional boxing. "The danger in that is that we could become more of a regulatory agency than a Department of Justice—dealing with the administration of justice."

4. To keep a close eye on business mergers to make certain they do not destroy competition.

Dean To Be Honored

Cletus Fitzharris of San Rafael will be master of ceremonies tonight when alumni of the University of Akron assemble for dinner at Veneto's Restaurant in San Francisco to honor Dean Donfred H. Gardner, vice president of the university and dean of administration.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Ribicoff Hits AMA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff says doctors are "misleading the American people" when they label the administration's health care for the aged plan as "socialized medicine."

Doctors are in no way involved in the proposal to provide care for the elderly through social security, Ribicoff said yesterday in a televised interview. He said the American Medical Assn. seeks to spread the impression that doctors would be controlled.

Many Cancer Cures

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A Philadelphia radiologist said yesterday that 98 per cent of localized cancer cases are now cured by radiation equipment.

Dr. Philip J. Hodes said the cure rate is particularly high in cancer of the breast and uterine cervix with early diagnosis. Skin cancer cure rate is almost 100 per cent, he said.

Ike Back In U.S.

PALM SPRINGS (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower got back on the golf links today after an eight-day hunting and fishing trip to Mexico's rugged Baja California Peninsula.

"We shot dove every day and got plenty of them," the ex-president said. "It's as good an eating bird as I've ever tasted."

Train Hits Car; 6 Die

CUCAMONGA (UPI)—A family of four and two children from other families were killed yesterday when a Santa Fe freight train smashed broadside into their auto as they drove to a picnic.

The family of accountant John Herron, 29, of Norwalk, his wife, Audrey, 30, and their children, Billy, 4, and Kathleen, 5, was wiped out in the crash. Also killed were Edward Lennox, 3, and Cim Fuller, 5, both of Downey.

Kennedy's Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy will send Congress a special message on foreign aid tomorrow, hold a news conference Wednesday and may send Congress another message Thursday proposing budget revisions.

There will be no live television or radio coverage of Kennedy's news conference.

Pain Killers Accused

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Trade Commission has accused manufacturers of four nationally advertised pain killers with falsely advertising that their products give the fastest relief from pain.

Actually, the FTC said, "there is no significant differences in the rate of speed with which these or any other such analgesics relieve pain." Named in the complaints were American Home Products, Corp. (Anacin), Britol-Myers Co. (Bufferin), Plough, Inc. (St. Joseph Aspirin) and Sterling Drug, Inc. (Bayer Aspirin and Bayer Aspirin for children).

Son For Gisele

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer-actress Gisele MacKenzie today is the mother of her first child, a six-pound seven-ounce son.

The boy, born yesterday, has been named Mackenzie Duffy. Miss MacKenzie, 38, is married to Bob Shuttleworth, her manager.

Kuchel Smog Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif), has asked for an early hearing on his bill to expand federal activities in the control of air pollution.

The legislation would give added responsibility to the surgeon general and the secretary of health, education and welfare to initiate studies of interstate contamination problems.

Hal Hayes To Wed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Millionaire builder Hal B. Hayes, frequent escort of the world's most glamorous women, has announced his engagement to a former United Nations guide from Finland.

Raili Hanninen, a 26-year-old blonde, said she and Hayes would be married during a 'round-the-world trip they plan to take after he finishes testifying in a Senate investigation.

Hayes is being questioned about the suspension of construction on houses he was building for armed services personnel near military bases.

Liz Out Of Bed

LONDON (AP)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor got up and walked around her hospital room for the first time yesterday, producer Walter Wanger reported after a visit. She recently suffered a severe attack of pneumonia.

Crippled Racing Yacht Limps Into Monterey

The bad-luck racing yacht Endymion limped into Monterey at five knots yesterday, ending her fourth attempts to sail under her own power from Hawaii to San Francisco as ingloriously as the previous three.

The five aboard included Al Rubiford of Sausalito, navigator on the cruise that wound up in disaster about 175 miles short of its goal.

The Endymion lost her mast — and her radio — in a storm last Friday. She made it to Monterey on the auxiliary engine, after emergency repairs at sea and with a Coast Guard escort.

Intruder Ties Elderly Woman To Kitchen Chair With Wire

San Rafael police reported that Miss Helen G. Sheeny, 70, of 820 Mission Avenue, was found tied with fine wire to her kitchen chair by Jerry Cervelli of the Food Mart when he called to deliver groceries.

Miss Sheeny told police a man came upon her porch while she was watering her plants. He represented himself as being from the water company, wanting to inspect her plumbing. When she went inside to telephone to check his credentials, he forced his way into the house, she said.

He then forced her into the kitchen chair, where he tied her, she reported. She was found a short while later by Cervelli.

Nothing was missing from the house, police said.

The man was described as blond, 5 feet 11 inches to six feet tall, and 25 to 30 years of age.

Corte Madera To Eye Dog, Zoning Laws

Amendments to the zoning and animal control ordinances will come before the Corte Madera Town Council tonight.

The council meets at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The zoning ordinance amendment provides that only the council may authorize free-standing signs. A recommendation from the planning commission urges that the amendment not be adopted and that the free-standing sign approval be left in the hands of the planners.

The animal control ordinance amendment, first introduced in January, would make it possible for action to be taken against an "objectionable" dog after a complaint by only one resident. Present law requires three complaintants.

A committee made up of Mayor Edward H. Colthurst and Councilmen Albert E. Kogler and Roger F. Morse will report on a study of the relative value to the town of duplex and multiple-residential zoning.

San Rafael To Air Plan For Condemnation

Whether the City of San Rafael shall condemn a parcel of property to extend a road from Bellam Boulevard to West Railroad Avenue may be decided by the city council when it meets at 8 o'clock tonight.

Friendshuh Construction Co. of San Rafael already has planning commission approval for a building on the parcel in question. If the firm goes ahead and builds, cost of the road extension would be prohibitive, according to City Manager Dan E. Andersen.

The council will receive an opinion from the city attorney on the legality of the low bid by contractor Russell Lauterwasser of Larkspur for demolishing the caretaker's building at Gerstle Park.

Lauterwasser bid $2,975, just under the engineer's $3,000 estimate, but the bid was challenged by an unsuccessful bidder, Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael, on the claim that Lauterwasser's contracting license does not cover such work.

Bids are to be opened on street repairs and water line replacement on Cijos Street.

The council may call for bids for a water line in Marin Bay subdivision.

Ballots of the Terra Linda annexation election will be canvassed and the 36 absentee votes counted. The city clerk's preliminary tally showed 833 voting against annexation to 662 in favor.

S.F. Man, 77, Hurt In Car Collision

A 77-year-old San Francisco man suffered a whiplash injury Saturday when his car was struck in the rear on Highway 101 near Puerto Suello Hill.

Martin M. Friedman told the California Highway Patrol he was driving south about 45 to 50 miles per hour when his car was struck, spun around and landed in a ditch.

A highway patrolman who was in the Wiltshire Towers at the time of the accident, heard tires squeal, went outside and heard a loud crash.

Driver of the other car, Charles Prince, 42, of 59 Geneva Way, San Rafael, also going south, told the patrol that "all of a sudden a bunch of cars were in front of me." He braked and skidded, he said.

Prince suffered minor injuries. Both drivers said they would see their own doctors.

INFANT TOSSED BETWEEN RAILS ESCAPES TRAIN

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (AP) —A 4-month-old baby, tossed between the rails in a car-train collision, escaped unharmed when 13 freight cars passed over it.

The baby's father, Pfc. Herman M. Hodges of Fort Campbell, Ky., its mother and 4-year-old brother were hospitalized.

The Tennessee Highway Patrol said Hodges' car was halfway across a blind crossing when a Tennessee Central freight hit it broadside and tossed the baby, Thomas Ed Hodges, between the rails.

Two Accused Of Snapping Car Aerials

Charged with drunkenness, malicious mischief and tampering with motor vehicles were Ronald G. Pettit of 105 North Third Street, Sausalito, and Joseph Wilson Goodfellow, an enlisted man aboard the aircraft carrier Ranger at Alameda Naval Air Station. They are to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on the charges at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

John C. Richardson of 425 Bridgeway telephoned Sausalito police Saturday midnight to say two young men were walked up the 400 black, snapping the aerials off parked cars.

Police apprehended Pettit and Goodfellow, who, the officers said, admitted that they had snapped the aerials from "seven or eight cars."

Two owners reported aerials broken from their cars: Lane Welch of San Francisco and Gilbert Barth of 321 Ross Drive, Mill Valley.

Injured In Shower

Sayes A. Turney of 115 Tarry Road, Sleepy Hollow, slipped in his shower about 2 p.m. yesterday, falling through the glass shower panel. He was cut on the shoulder and neck. Turney was taken to Marin General Hospital where his condition was reported as good today.

Senator May Drop Teacher Training Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) indicated today he probably will drop his legislative proposal to require elementary school teachers to have five years of training.

Fisher said he's talking over the matter with members of the Senate Education Committee, currently considering his far-reaching bill to revamp state teacher training requirements.

The section of the measure requiring an extra year's training for elementary teachers has been opposed by Dr. Harold Spears, San Francisco superintendent of schools, and others.

Opponents say it will add to teachers' expenses and might discourage them from going into teaching.

Fisher said he is looking into the possibility of leaving the fifth year requirement to the administrative discretion of the State Board of Education, rather than carrying it as a legal requirement in his bill.

Hoax Fire Calls In Corte Madera

Anonymous telephone calls informed two Corte Madera residents their "houses were on fire" early Saturday morning.

Both callers told the occupants "they would be sorry" if they did not call the fire department. Both alarms proved to be false.

The first call to Mrs. J. H. Boyle at 1515 Redwood Highway, just north of the Corte Madera town limits, came at 12:15 a.m. Mrs. Boyle and her husband checked the premises but did not turn in an alarm.

The second call was at 12:25 a.m. to Mrs. May Ward at 7 Mohawk Avenue. The town fire department answered but found no evidence of fire.

'Hire A Vet' Week

"Hire a Veteran Week" will be observed throughout the state May 7-13, it was announced by W. P. (Doc) Duhamel, state veterans service officer. Posters will be distributed throughout the state, including Marin County, in stores, supermarkets, service stations and service organizations.

High Court Backs Up Louisiana Integration

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court today unanimously affirmed lower federal court orders striking down Louisiana efforts to bar school integration.

The high tribunal also turned down a request by the New Orleans School Board that it be allowed to maintain segregated schools until litigation between the federal government and the state is finally settled.

Without comment the Supreme Court:

1. Affirmed a Nov. 30, 1960 decision by a special three-judge federal court in New Orleans which knocked out an assortment of anti-integration laws.

2. Also affirmed a decision of Aug. 27, 1960, by the same special court which ordered control of New Orleans schools taken out of the hands of Gov. Jimmie H. Davis of Louisiana and put back with the Orleans Parish School Board.

This August order by the special court directed the school board to comply with a May 16, 1960 order by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright to integrate the first grade last fall.

Supreme Court today also:

1. Agreed to examine a Virginia law which the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People contends may destroy it in the state. The controversy centers around a Virginia court ruling which held that theNAACP was "engaged in the unlawful solicitation of legal business" when its attorneys participated in anti-segregation legal battles.

2. Agreed to look into a copyright dispute between Vice. Adm. Hyman G. Rickover and Public Affairs Press which centered around the atomic submarine expert's claim that he is entitled to copyright speeches so that they cannot be quoted or used in a book without his permission.

3. Decided to hear arguments in a complex legal snarl stemming from Venezuela's attempt to extradite former president and strong man Marcos Perez Jiminez.

4. Declined to hear an appeal by Mrs. VI Murphy, a Colorado Springs newspaperwoman, who drew a 30-day contempt of court sentence for refusing to reveal a news source.

5. Refused to reconsider its Jan. 23 decision upholding censorship of motion pictures before their public showing.

To License Contractor

The Contractors' State License Board in Sacramento announced it plans to issue a general building contractor's license to Camelot Construction Co., 1730 Centro West Street, Tiburon, if no protests are received by April 15. Officers of the firm are listed as Henry N. Cam, Anthony Winston and John C. Roach.

Pettit of 105 North Third Street, Sausalito, and Joseph Wilson Goodfellow, an enlisted man aboard the aircraft carrier Ranger at Alameda Naval Air Station. They are to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court on the charges at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday.

John C. Richardson of 425 Bridgeway telephoned Sausalito police Saturday midnight to say two young men were walked up the 400 black, snapping the aerials off parked cars.

Police apprehended Pettit and Goodfellow, who, the officers said, admitted that they had snapped the aerials from "seven or eight cars."

Two owners reported aerials broken from their cars: Lane Welch of San Francisco and Gilbert Barth of 321 Ross Drive, Mill Valley.

Injured In Shower

Sayes A. Turney of 115 Tarry Road, Sleepy Hollow, slipped in his shower about 2 p.m. yesterday, falling through the glass shower panel. He was cut on the shoulder and neck. Turney was taken to Marin General Hospital where his condition was reported as good today.

Senator May Drop Teacher Training Plan

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) indicated today he probably will drop his legislative proposal to require elementary school teachers to have five years of training.

Fisher said he's talking over the matter with members of the Senate Education Committee, currently considering his far-reaching bill to revamp state teacher training requirements.

The section of the measure requiring an extra year's training for elementary teachers has been opposed by Dr. Harold Spears, San Francisco superintendent of schools, and others.

Opponents say it will add to teachers' expenses and might discourage them from going into teaching.

Fisher said he is looking into the possibility of leaving the fifth year requirement to the administrative discretion of the State Board of Education, rather than carrying it as a legal requirement in his bill.

Hoax Fire Calls In Corte Madera

Anonymous telephone calls informed two Corte Madera residents their "houses were on fire" early Saturday morning.

Both callers told the occupants "they would be sorry" if they did not call the fire department. Both alarms proved to be false.

The first call to Mrs. J. H. Boyle at 1515 Redwood Highway, just north of the Corte Madera town limits, came at 12:15 a.m. Mrs. Boyle and her husband checked the premises but did not turn in an alarm.

The second call was at 12:25 a.m. to Mrs. May Ward at 7 Mohawk Avenue. The town fire department answered but found no evidence of fire.

'Hire A Vet' Week

"Hire a Veteran Week" will be observed throughout the state May 7-13, it was announced by W. P. (Doc) Duhamel, state veterans service officer. Posters will be distributed throughout the state, including Marin County, in stores, supermarkets, service stations and service organizations.

High Court Backs Up Louisiana Integration

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court today unanimously affirmed lower federal court orders striking down Louisiana efforts to bar school integration.

The high tribunal also turned down a request by the New Orleans School Board that it be allowed to maintain segregated schools until litigation between the federal government and the state is finally settled.

Without comment the Supreme Court:

1. Affirmed a Nov. 30, 1960 decision by a special three-judge federal court in New Orleans which knocked out an assortment of anti-integration laws.

2. Also affirmed a decision of Aug. 27, 1960, by the same special court which ordered control of New Orleans schools taken out of the hands of Gov. Jimmie H. Davis of Louisiana and put back with the Orleans Parish School Board.

This August order by the special court directed the school board to comply with a May 16, 1960 order by U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright to integrate the first grade last fall.

Supreme Court today also:

1. Agreed to examine a Virginia law which the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People contends may destroy it in the state. The controversy centers around a Virginia court ruling which held that theNAACP was "engaged in the unlawful solicitation of legal business" when its attorneys participated in anti-segregation legal battles.

2. Agreed to look into a copyright dispute between Vice. Adm. Hyman G. Rickover and Public Affairs Press which centered around the atomic submarine expert's claim that he is entitled to copyright speeches so that they cannot be quoted or used in a book without his permission.

3. Decided to hear arguments in a complex legal snarl stemming from Venezuela's attempt to extradite former president and strong man Marcos Perez Jiminez.

4. Declined to hear an appeal by Mrs. VI Murphy, a Colorado Springs newspaperwoman, who drew a 30-day contempt of court sentence for refusing to reveal a news source.

5. Refused to reconsider its Jan. 23 decision upholding censorship of motion pictures before their public showing.

To License Contractor

The Contractors' State License Board in Sacramento announced it plans to issue a general building contractor's license to Camelot Construction Co., 1730 Centro West Street, Tiburon, if no protests are received by April 15. Officers of the firm are listed as Henry N. Cam, Anthony Winston and John C. Roach.

BRITISH ESPIONAGE TRIAL

Threat Made Him Spy, Clerk Says

LONDON (AP) —A Royal Navy clerk told a jury today he photographed secret plans of a nuclear submarine after Communist hoodlums beat him and threatened his mistress.

Henry F. Houghton, 55, one of five defendants charged with leaking secrets to the Russians, claimed he deliberately took the photographs out of focus so they would be useless to his tormentors.

The submarine is the Dreadnought, built by the British with American assistance. Its reactor is of the type installed in the American Skipjack class.

Houghton testified his troubles started in February, 1958, when a contact man he knew only as "Nikki" demanded details from the Portland base where Houghton worked.

When he failed to show up for a meeting, Houghton said, two men came to his house and beat him savagely. They threatened next time to get his mistress and co-defendant, Ethel Elizabeth Gee, 46, also an employee at the Portland base.

The others accused are Gordon A. Lonsdale, 37; Peter Kroger, 50, and his wife, Helen, 47. The Federal Bureau of Investigation has identified the Krogers as Morris and Lola Cohen, American citizens who formerly lived in New York.

Houghton said he stalled off the ring from time to time by giving them pamphlets and papers they could have obtained in ordinary publications. But when they threatened Miss Gee, he said, "I regarded that as most serious."

Asked just who the men were, Houghton said: "I did not know who they were but I had every suspicion that they were the Eastern bloc-Czechs, Poles, Russians."

Houghton and Miss Gee are accused of giving documents on anti-submarine warfare as well as a plan of the Dreadnought to Lonsdale, who in turn gave them to the Krogers. Police found a radio transmitter in the Kroger home and said it was beamed on Moscow.

Building Permits Still Increasing

For the eighth straight month residential building permits issued in Marin have exceeded those for last year, the Marin Industrial Development Foundation reported today.

A total of 149 dwelling units were authorized last month, valued at $2,340,052, compared to 122 valued at $1,531,735 for February 1960.

Total construction for last month was valued at $3,516,487—6.8 per cent more than January and 50.4 per cent more than February last year.

Largest contracts were $395,017 for an intermediate school in San Jose School District, and $269,210 for a medical-dental building in San Rafael.

Kids' Events Set By Jewish Center

Three days of events for members of the Marin Jewish Community Center between the ages of 5 and 12 have been planned for the spring recess.

Next Monday, children will exchange craft projects they will be given a boat ride to Angel Island March 29 and they will celebrate a Passover party at the center March 31.

Further information may be obtained from Terry Bloom at the center in San Rafael.

Bay Wildlife Area Plans Will Be Told

Pans for development of approximately 700 acres of tidelands and land on Richardson Bay, now deeded to the National Audubon Society, will be announced at the annual meeting of the Marin Conservation League on Friday at 8 p.m. in Olney Hall of College of Marin.

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, president of the Conservation League for its 27 years, today said that the extensive area which some people may think is an "expensive bird cage" is really not just "for the birds" but for the very people who bought the properties.

The waters will be open, she said, to swimmers, skin divers and small boats. "We only ask people to be considerate from October to March when thousands of waterfowl are in the flyway," Mrs. Livermore said.

The deeds to the lands, formerly owned by the league and the Richardson Bay Foundation, will be turned over to the national president of the Audubon Society, Carl W. Buchheister, at the meeting.

Buchheister, of New York, will speak on "The Audubon Society at Work." He will outline plans for the wildlife sanctuary and the Dickey Memorial Education Center for adult and youth groups.

Officers of the league will be elected and the annual report will be given by Mrs. Livermore. A coffee hour will precede the meeting. Reservations for the coffee hour must be made by tomorrow noon, at the office of the Marin Camp Fire Girls, San Rafael. The meeting following is open to the public without reservations.

A vast network of rail, highway, ship and air transportation converges on San Francisco.

Legislature Lagging As Midway Point Nears

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Legislature, stalled for weeks on such noisy side issues as lobbyists, communism and the flag, finds itself lagging in its major work as the session nears the halfway mark.

With 11 weeks of the 24-week session gone, the lawmakers have yet to finish action on a major water, narcotics, tax or education bill.

The tally shows 360 bills passed by the Assembly and 50 by the Senate out of a total of 2,278 introduced in the Assembly and 1,001 in the Senate.

Subcommittees are at work on the record 2.6-billion-dollar state budget, a raft of education bills and numerous measures to liberalize workers' benefit and welfare programs.

A bill to provide emergency benefits to 55,000 unemployed already has been passed, signed into law and put into effect.

The bill to reapportion assembly and congressional districts has been introduced in skeleton form, but it will be next month before the actual carving-out of new districts begins.

Early actions appear to have set a pattern for narcotics and tax legislation.

The Assembly and a Senate committee have approved stiffer narcotics penalties, and some change in the law seems assured.

But efforts to permit use of illegally obtained evidence in narcotics cases are bogged down. A battle is expected, possibly this week, over efforts to bring the bills before the full Assembly for a showdown.

Democratic majorities in both houses have stood behind Gov. Edmund G. Brown in opposing tax cuts except for a 6.27-million-dollar reduction in the sales tax by exempting prescription medicines.

A total of 145 million dollars in tax cuts has been proposed, but few appear to have any future.

Committees are at work on bills to increase state school aid, bolster teacher training standards, set up special programs for gifted students and provide statewide testing, but no final action has been taken.

A stopgap bill to ban discriminatory freight differentials in purchase of textbook and measures authorizing more study of the burning and buying of textbooks probably will be the results of the uproar over textbooks.

Numerous bills have been introduced to bend or break the 1.75 billion dollar state water bond program, but none has been set for hearing.

The Senate, dominated by northerners, may act on the bills, but chances of Assembly passage are slim.

Committees of both houses are wrangling over proposals to repeal or ease the requirement that adult children of state pensioners contribute to their parents' support, but no bill has reached the floor of either house.

Other proposed welfare changes, such as tightening the aid-to-needy children program, have not moved.

Nike-Hercules Site Contract Awarded

M. W. Garing of Oakland has been awarded a $30,459 Government contract covering construction of Nike-Hercules improvements at a site near San Rafael, Col. John A. Morrison, San Francisco District Army engineer announced today.

The project will involve construction of concrete radar pads, revisions to electrical systems and associated work, Colonel Morrison added.

Episcopal Bishops Hit At Capital Punshment

NEW YORK (AP)—Bishops of the Episcopal Church say capital punishment "brutalizes society."

The death penalty, they claim, also debases law enforcement, fails to deter crime, even stimulates crime in some cases, and is "contrary to the will of God."

The document, described as the first of its kind issued by an American church, assails Hoover for saying that opponents of capital punishment are sheltered people unaware of the horrors committed by criminals.

The report said those favoring capital punishment base their position on vengeful sentimentalism. It disputed charges of pacifism and sentimentalism which have been made against opponents.

The document also said the death penalty is paid disproportionately by the underprivileged, the poorly educated, minority groups and the mentally deficient. It said defendants of wealth and position in similar cases are rarely put to death.

The report cites evidence of executions of innocent persons.

At another point, it says: "The consequences of the incarnation (of Christ) place the scaffold, the guillotine, the gas chamber, the firing squad and the electric chair under the judgment of another symbol of suffering and shame: The Cross."

The document, released through the Episcopal Church's bishops, implements a resolution adopted by the denomination's general convention.

Two Women Treated For Cuts In Brawl

Two Marin City women were treated for cuts at Marin General Hospital early Saturday after what sheriff's deputies described as a "drunken party" in a Marin City house.

Shirley Mae Tate, 29, of 49 Cole Drive, suffered a scratched forehead, cut lip and neck. Twenty stitches were taken to close her wounds. Lee Ella Davis, 40, of 419 Drake Avenue, was treated for a cut forehead. Neither woman signed a complaint.

The tally shows 360 bills passed by the Assembly and 50 by the Senate out of a total of 2,278 introduced in the Assembly and 1,001 in the Senate.

Subcommittees are at work on the record 2.6-billion-dollar state budget, a raft of education bills and numerous measures to liberalize workers' benefit and welfare programs.

A bill to provide emergency benefits to 55,000 unemployed already has been passed, signed into law and put into effect.

The bill to reapportion assembly and congressional districts has been introduced in skeleton form, but it will be next month before the actual carving-out of new districts begins.

Early actions appear to have set a pattern for narcotics and tax legislation.

The Assembly and a Senate committee have approved stiffer narcotics penalties, and some change in the law seems assured.

But efforts to permit use of illegally obtained evidence in narcotics cases are bogged down. A battle is expected, possibly this week, over efforts to bring the bills before the full Assembly for a showdown.

Democratic majorities in both houses have stood behind Gov. Edmund G. Brown in opposing tax cuts except for a 6.27-million-dollar reduction in the sales tax by exempting prescription medicines.

A total of 145 million dollars in tax cuts has been proposed, but few appear to have any future.

Committees are at work on bills to increase state school aid, bolster teacher training standards, set up special programs for gifted students and provide statewide testing, but no final action has been taken.

A stopgap bill to ban discriminatory freight differentials in purchase of textbook and measures authorizing more study of the burning and buying of textbooks probably will be the results of the uproar over textbooks.

Numerous bills have been introduced to bend or break the 1.75 billion dollar state water bond program, but none has been set for hearing.

The Senate, dominated by northerners, may act on the bills, but chances of Assembly passage are slim.

Committees of both houses are wrangling over proposals to repeal or ease the requirement that adult children of state pensioners contribute to their parents' support, but no bill has reached the floor of either house.

Other proposed welfare changes, such as tightening the aid-to-needy children program, have not moved.

Nike-Hercules Site Contract Awarded

M. W. Garing of Oakland has been awarded a $30,459 Government contract covering construction of Nike-Hercules improvements at a site near San Rafael, Col. John A. Morrison, San Francisco District Army engineer announced today.

The project will involve construction of concrete radar pads, revisions to electrical systems and associated work, Colonel Morrison added.

Episcopal Bishops Hit At Capital Punshment

The death penalty, they claim, also debases law enforcement, fails to deter crime, even stimulates crime in some cases, and is "contrary to the will of God."

The document, described as the first of its kind issued by an American church, assails Hoover for saying that opponents of capital punishment are sheltered people unaware of the horrors committed by criminals.

The report said those favoring capital punishment base their position on vengeful sentimentalism. It disputed charges of pacifism and sentimentalism which have been made against opponents.

The document also said the death penalty is paid disproportionately by the underprivileged, the poorly educated, minority groups and the mentally deficient. It said defendants of wealth and position in similar cases are rarely put to death.

The report cites evidence of executions of innocent persons.

At another point, it says: "The consequences of the incarnation (of Christ) place the scaffold, the guillotine, the gas chamber, the firing squad and the electric chair under the judgment of another symbol of suffering and shame: The Cross."

The document, released through the Episcopal Church's bishops, implements a resolution adopted by the denomination's general convention.

Two Women Treated For Cuts In Brawl

Two Marin City women were treated for cuts at Marin General Hospital early Saturday after what sheriff's deputies described as a "drunken party" in a Marin City house.

Shirley Mae Tate, 29, of 49 Cole Drive, suffered a scratched forehead, cut lip and neck. Twenty stitches were taken to close her wounds. Lee Ella Davis, 40, of 419 Drake Avenue, was treated for a cut forehead. Neither woman signed a complaint.

Stinson Reassured On Parking Lot Proposal

Reassurance was given Stinson Beach residents today that the Marin County Planning Commission is not insisting on dropping a 22-acre car parking lot into their midst.

Planning Director Mary Summers explained, in response to many protests against the parking lot idea, that the sole staff recommendation was that the commission indicate intention to hold the 22 acres of county-owned land for public use, without specifying whether this would be parking or something else which could be decided later.

The commission agreed to hold the land as indicated, specifying use after the development of the locality had gone farther. A resolution of intention to adopt a Bolinas-Stinson Beach Master Plan was continued to May 1 on assurance that the master plan text would be completed before that time, among other things clearing the question of public beach walk.

Protests came thick and fast, including:

"This is a hell of a mess—vote it down and forget it." "Ordinance 264 took three years to pass and it won't hurt to wait on this." "Let's look into other ways to control illegal subdivision."

In the growing confusion, McCarthy and Dobbs locked in argument as to just what the ordinance required in the way of notice. "I am inclined to agree with Mr. McCarthy," put in Commissioner Niels Schultz.

"This is a very important thing for the entire county and I think all the people should be given plenty of time for study," said Commissioner George Scott. "I move that we postpone for three months."

Schultz seconded and Chairman Upton said "I think we should get an opinion of county counsel on how to give notice."

"My feeling is that everybody should be notified," said Scott.

This led to far-ranging argument, with chairman Upton wielding his gavel in an attempt to restore order.

Upton closed the hearing, saying he was personally directing the staff to consult county counsel "for my information."

Trustees To Hear Bus Firm Request

Tamalpais Union High School District trustees tonight will consider a request by the Greyhound Bus Co. for leasing of about an acre and one-half of land at the south end of Tamalpais High School property adjoining Almonte Drive in Mill Valley.

The bus company would use the land as a storage area for buses at night and on weekends.

Also before the trustees will be a report by the homemaking departments of the three district high schools for the past year.

San Rafael Boy Injured By B-B

An 11-year-old San Rafael boy reported yesterday he was shot in the right leg by another boy with a B-B gun.

Ronald C. Potter of 44 Marquard Avenue said he and Kenneth M. Cranston, 11, of 2022 Fourth Street, were riding their bicycles up Laurel Avenue, next to Boyd Park, when the unidentified youth aimed his gun directly at them. Ronald was shot.

The boys rode their bicycles up to the top of Robert Dollar Drive and played for a while before reporting the incident to police. A patrol unit searched the area, but didn't find the youth with a gun.

Anniversary Mass Said In Mill Valley

An anniversary Mass in honor of Julia Bickerstaff, who died three years ago, was said today at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Mill Valley.

A notice advertising the Mass was run in error in Saturday's Independent-Journal under the heading "Card of Thanks." The Independent-Journal regrets the error and any embarrassment it may have caused.

Woman Wanted In S.F. Jailed Here

When San Rafael police found Darlene McFarland, 25, of Stockton asleep in a car with the motor running at Mission and Grand Avenues at 3:45 a.m. today, they took her to the county jail and booked her for vagrancy.

But then they found San Francisco wanted her for something else: $47 worth of traffic tickets.

San Francisco can have her, said the San Rafael officers. She was jailed here, however, under $52.50 bail.

Youth, Girl Discovered Drunk In Belvedere

A 16-year-old Larkspur girl and a 17-year-old Larkspur boy were turned over to the probation officer Friday night after being found drunk in the boy's car on Windward Road in Belvedere at 11 p.m. by Belvedere police.

The youngsters told police they had been to a party. They were released to their parents.

Retired Sailor Leaves Estate Of $135,000

Otto T. Aasheim was a Norwegian-born retired merchant seaman, who collected his $100 monthly retirement since leaving the sea in 1948 at the age of 65, and who lived in a $38-a-month apartment in San Francisco.

Beyond that, nobody knew much about Aasheim. He died in his modest apartment on Jan. 29. A simple funeral was held.

But Aashmeim had hired a lawyer to draw up a will. The lawyer, Charles P. Knights, disclosed yesterday that the retired sailor had $40,000 in bank accounts and $95,000 in securities in a safety deposit box.

The lawyer had no idea of the source of the weath. But the will specified $10,000 bequests to Guide Dogs to the Blind, to Trinity Lutheran Church of San Francisco and to Aasheim's brother, Lorentz, in Bellingham, Wash., with the remainder to be divided one-half to the American Cancer Society and one-fourth each to the Red Cross and the National Foundation.

Man Accused Of Slamming Boy On Lawn

A 28-year-old San Rafael man was charged yesterday with picking up a 7-year-old boy and slamming him down on a lawn.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Shirley Jane Zuurbier of 14 Warner Court, made a citizen's arrest of Joseph G. Giordani of 23 Warner Court, charging him with battery.

The child, Andrew G. Zuurbier, and a 10-year-old friend, told San Rafael police that Giordani raised Andrew over his head and slammed him down on the lawn.

Mrs. Zuurbier said she was drinking coffee in her kitchen when she heard the boy crying. Outside the house she saw Giordani threatening Andrew. Police said the boy's right side appeared reddish.

Giordani admitted the incident to police, said he was sorry and hoped the boy was not hurt. He said he saw Andrew strike his 3-year-old son, Jerry Giordani, in the back with his foot, knocking him to the lawn.

Permission Sought For Boat Landing

Mrs. Allan H. Beckwith, 32 Harbor Cove, Strawberry Point, is seeking Army permission to build boat landing facilities on her property at the east side of Strawberry Peninsula.

The boat landing would consist of a pier, gangway and float. The float would be five feet wide, 35 feet long, and secured by two pilings.

Col. John A. Morrison, Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army Engineer District in San Francisco, announced that objections to the work must be submitted by April 16. The Army is concerned only with the public rights of navigation.

Fairfax Trustee Resigns Tomorrow

Stryker Warren, Fairfax School District trustee, will resign from the board at tomorrow night's school board meeting. The meeting is scheduled for 7:45 p. m. at Manor School.

Warren is submitting his resignation because of pressure of business, which takes him out of town frequently.

Warren's term is one of three on the board expiring this June and up for election April 18. Supt. Homer Sisk said that customarily the person receiving the highest number of votes in the election would be given an interim appointment by the county superintendent, to serve until the regular term begins July 1.

Birthday Fete Set For Sub Service

The Submarine Service will be 61 years old April 15.

Bay Area submariners will celebrate at two birthday balls to be held at Mare Island on that day, announced Capt. Karl R. Wheland.

The officers' ball will be held at the Mare Island commissioned Officers Mess from 6:30 p. m. to 1 a. m. and the enlisted men's ball will be held at the Mare Island Chief Petty Officers' Mess during the same hours.

County Permits

Thirty-five building permits, for construction valued at $391,112, were issued by the Marin County Building Department for the week ending March 10. Most of the permits were for dwellings.

JAMES SULLIVAN

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco County Supervisor James J. Sullivan, 62, died at St. Mary's Hospital early today after an illness of several months.

Sullivan had undergone three major operations during the past four months and was recovering when pneumonia set in. He took an unexpected turn for the worse at noon yesterday, doctors said.

OBITUARIES

Descendent Of Big Land Grantee Dies

A Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Mary J. Mossop, a direct descendant of the owner of a 6,658-acre Mexican land grant which is today part of San Anselmo and Fairfax, will be celebrated tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael.

Mrs. Mossop, 87, died Saturday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

She was the granddaughter of Domingo Sais, who in 1839 was granted the massive Rancho Canada de Herrera by the Mexican governor. Sais had served a two-year term as elector and regidor of San Francisco.

Mrs. Mossop was born on her grandfather's ranch in San Anselmo. She was married to the late William S. Mossop on her 20th birthday, April 17, 1893. He was in charge of maintenance of the old Pacific Union Country Club in Olema.

Mrs. Mossop is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Josephine Sarantis of San Francisco, and a sister, Mrs. Louise Richsteiner of San Gabriel.

The cortege will assemble tomorrow at 9:15 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited today at 8 p.m. at Keaton's Chapel. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

SEYMOUR R. HIX II

A 17-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base sergeant died Saturday at the base hospital, shortly after he was found lying on the floor of his bedroom, shot in the right temple.

Chief M/Sgt. Seymour D. Hix found his son, Seymour Robert Hix II, when he opened the bedroom door. The family reside at 97 Selfridge Way, on the base.

Novato police said the boy shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle. He left a brief note reading: "Mom and Dad, I'm sorry. All my love, Bob."

His parents said the boy had taken a college entrance examination Saturday morning. When he returned home his father gave him a letter from a university informing him that he needed additional credits to attend that school. He appeared disappointed on reading it. The boy was a good student, his parents said.

MARY T. PADDOCK

Mrs. Mary T. Paddock, 73, a former missionary to China, died en route to a San Francisco hospital by ambulance yesterday after collapsing on Olive Street in Mill Valley about 11 a.m. on her way to the Mill Valley Community Church.

Death was tentatively attributed to a stroke.

She had resided at 107 Cornelia Avenue, Mill Valley, since 1923.

Mrs. Paddock was the wife of Bernard H. Paddock, a former Mill Valley builder, now retired.

Mrs. Paddock was born in Monroe, Wis. She was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, taught school in Wisconsin three years and then went as a missionary teacher for the Methodist Church to Yenping, in Fukien Province, China.

While in Yenping she met and married Paddock, who was principal of a Methodist Church school. The Paddocks' first daughter, Dorothy, was born there. She is now Mrs. Walter Hirt and lives in Santa Barbara.

The Paddocks returned to Mill Valley in 1923. Mrs. Paddock took over charge of Young Women's Christian Assn. summer camps which were held at a large cottage on Cornella Avenue. She held this job 25 years.

She was a member of the Mill Valley Community Church.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Paddock is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jean Strawbridge of Concord, Contra Costa County, and Mrs. Hirt; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Kubly, Mrs. Lydia Hartwig, and Ophelia Tschudy of Monroe, Wis.; seven brothers, Andrew, Art, Benjamin and Emil Tschudy of Monroe; Rev. Fred Tschudy of Long Beach; Lionel Tschudy of Amarillo, Tex., and Ted Tschudy of Cheyenne, and by one grandson.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Mill Valley Community Church. Friends may call at the Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley until 1 p.m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma.

The family has requested tributes be contributed to favorite charities.

ALLEN K. GIFFORD

Allen K. Gifford, 91, retired timekeeper for Marin Municipal Water District, died early today in a local hospital. He was operated on for a broken hip after he fell at his home last Monday.

He was employed as a timekeeper for the district from 1921 to 1936 when he retired. He and his wife made their home at 216 Bayview Street, San Rafael. He had lived in Marin County for 41 years and was a native of Iowa.

Gifford was a member of Marin Lodge 200, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his wife, Judith Ann; a daughter, Mrs. Gene Lakeman of San Rafael, and two grandsons.

EMILY GRISSELL

Mrs. Emily Grissell, 64, mother of Mrs. Bettylou Hutton of 251 Flagstone Terrace, Marinwood, and Santa Cruz resident, died yesterday in a local hospital after a four-month illness.

Mrs. Grissell had worked in the Santa Cruz County recorder's office since 1946. Mrs. Hutton brought her to a Marin County hospital in November when she became ill.

Mrs. Grissell is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Hutton, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Center and Miss Ida Wollaug of San Francisco and Mrs. Theodore Sherwood of Redwood City, and two granddaughters.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Do Germs Cause Disease?

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

There are many types of germs and all of them have a place in the scheme of things, just as insects, birds, fish and animals are necessary to maintain the balance of nature. You may be a normal healthy man or woman but at this moment there are multitudes of beneficial germs at work within your body. Without them you would become desperately ill . . . These are the germs we seldom read about in the newspapers and magazines.

Take as an example the colon bacillus (escheri-chia coli), a germ which is essential to good health. It breaks down waste matter in the bowels for easier elimination and does other important jobs. Other varieties of germs perform equally important work in other parts of the body. The atmosphere around us is always thick with germs — some good, some bad—but we are not always sick. Why not?

Resistance to germs and disease depends on the proper functioning of the nervous system, the master system of the body. When the nerve supplying a certain organ is pinched or blocked by a misaligned bone in the spine, the affected organ will lose its resistance. Disease strikes when germs begin to prey on the weakened organs, but the same germs are powerless against a healthy organ.

Often, an organ will regain its strength and fight off disease germs once the interference with its nerve supply is corrected.

Chiropractors are experts in restoring and maintaining nerve function. They do this by finding the nerve interference in the spine and by adjusting the misaligned spinal bone (vertebra) quickly and painlessly by hand.

San Rafael Boy Injured By B-B

An 11-year-old San Rafael boy reported yesterday he was shot in the right leg by another boy with a B-B gun.

Ronald C. Potter of 44 Marquard Avenue said he and Kenneth M. Cranston, 11, of 2022 Fourth Street, were riding their bicycles up Laurel Avenue, next to Boyd Park, when the unidentified youth aimed his gun directly at them. Ronald was shot.

The boys rode their bicycles up to the top of Robert Dollar Drive and played for a while before reporting the incident to police. A patrol unit searched the area, but didn't find the youth with a gun.

Woman Wanted In S.F. Jailed Here

When San Rafael police found Darlene McFarland, 25, of Stockton asleep in a car with the motor running at Mission and Grand Avenues at 3:45 a.m. today, they took her to the county jail and booked her for vagrancy.

But then they found San Francisco wanted her for something else: $47 worth of traffic tickets.

San Francisco can have her, said the San Rafael officers. She was jailed here, however, under $52.50 bail.

Youth, Girl Discovered Drunk In Belvedere

A 16-year-old Larkspur girl and a 17-year-old Larkspur boy were turned over to the probation officer Friday night after being found drunk in the boy's car on Windward Road in Belvedere at 11 p.m. by Belvedere police.

The youngsters told police they had been to a party. They were released to their parents.

Retired Sailor Leaves Estate Of $135,000

Otto T. Aasheim was a Norwegian-born retired merchant seaman, who collected his $100 monthly retirement since leaving the sea in 1948 at the age of 65, and who lived in a $38-a-month apartment in San Francisco.

Beyond that, nobody knew much about Aasheim. He died in his modest apartment on Jan. 29. A simple funeral was held.

But Aashmeim had hired a lawyer to draw up a will. The lawyer, Charles P. Knights, disclosed yesterday that the retired sailor had $40,000 in bank accounts and $95,000 in securities in a safety deposit box.

The lawyer had no idea of the source of the weath. But the will specified $10,000 bequests to Guide Dogs to the Blind, to Trinity Lutheran Church of San Francisco and to Aasheim's brother, Lorentz, in Bellingham, Wash., with the remainder to be divided one-half to the American Cancer Society and one-fourth each to the Red Cross and the National Foundation.

Man Accused Of Slamming Boy On Lawn

A 28-year-old San Rafael man was charged yesterday with picking up a 7-year-old boy and slamming him down on a lawn.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Shirley Jane Zuurbier of 14 Warner Court, made a citizen's arrest of Joseph G. Giordani of 23 Warner Court, charging him with battery.

The child, Andrew G. Zuurbier, and a 10-year-old friend, told San Rafael police that Giordani raised Andrew over his head and slammed him down on the lawn.

Mrs. Zuurbier said she was drinking coffee in her kitchen when she heard the boy crying. Outside the house she saw Giordani threatening Andrew. Police said the boy's right side appeared reddish.

Giordani admitted the incident to police, said he was sorry and hoped the boy was not hurt. He said he saw Andrew strike his 3-year-old son, Jerry Giordani, in the back with his foot, knocking him to the lawn.

Permission Sought For Boat Landing

Mrs. Allan H. Beckwith, 32 Harbor Cove, Strawberry Point, is seeking Army permission to build boat landing facilities on her property at the east side of Strawberry Peninsula.

The boat landing would consist of a pier, gangway and float. The float would be five feet wide, 35 feet long, and secured by two pilings.

Col. John A. Morrison, Corps of Engineers, U.S. Army Engineer District in San Francisco, announced that objections to the work must be submitted by April 16. The Army is concerned only with the public rights of navigation.

Took Combat Course

Marine Pvt. Lawrence C. Chapman, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Chapman of 1150 Cambridge Street, Novato completed a four-week individual combat training course with the Second Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

Fairfax Trustee Resigns Tomorrow

Stryker Warren, Fairfax School District trustee, will resign from the board at tomorrow night's school board meeting. The meeting is scheduled for 7:45 p. m. at Manor School.

Warren is submitting his resignation because of pressure of business, which takes him out of town frequently.

Warren's term is one of three on the board expiring this June and up for election April 18, Supt. Homer Sisk said that customarily the person receiving the highest number of votes in the election would be given an interim appointment by the county superintendent, to serve until the regular term begins July 1.

Birthday Fete Set For Sub Service

The Submarine Service will be 61 years old April 15.

Bay Area submariners will celebrate at two birthday balls to be held at Mare Island on that day, announced Capt. Karl R. Wheland.

The officers' ball will be held at the Mare Island commissioned Officers Mess from 6:30 p. m. to 1 a. m. and the enlisted men's ball will be held at the Mare Island Chief Petty Officers' Mess during the same hours.

County Permits

Thirty-five building permits, for construction valued at $391,112, were issued by the Marin County Building Department for the week ending March 10. Most of the permits were for dwellings.

JAMES SULLIVAN

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—San Francisco County Supervisor James J. Sullivan, 62, died at St. Mary's Hospital early today after an illness of several months.

Sullivan had undergone three major operations during the past four months and was recovering when pneumonia set in. He took an unexpected turn for the worse at noon yesterday, doctors said.

OBITUARIES

Descendent Of Big Land Grantee Dies

A Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Mary J. Mossop, a direct descendant of the owner of a 6,658-acre Mexican land grant which is today part of San Anselmo and Fairfax, will be celebrated tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael.

Mrs. Mossop, 87, died Saturday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

She was the granddaughter of Domingo Sais, who in 1839 was granted the massive Rancho Canada de Herrera by the Mexican governor. Sais had served a two-year term as elector and regidor of San Francisco.

Mrs. Mossop was born on her grandfather's ranch in San Anselmo. She was married to the late William S. Mossop on her 20th birthday, April 17, 1893. He was in charge of maintenance of the old Pacific Union Country Club in Olema.

Mrs. Mossop is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Josephine Sarantis of San Francisco, and a sister, Mrs. Louise Richsteiner of San Gabriel.

The cortege will assemble tomorrow at 9:15 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. The Rosary will be recited today at 8 p.m. at Keaton's Chapel. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

SEYMOUR R. HIX II

A 17-year-old son of a Hamilton Air Force Base sergeant died Saturday at the base hospital, shortly after he was found lying on the floor of his bedroom, shot in the right temple.

Chief M/Sgt. Seymour D. Hix found his son, Seymour Robert Hix II, when he opened the bedroom door. The family reside at 97 Selfridge Way, on the base.

Novato police said the boy shot himself with a .22 caliber rifle. He left a brief note reading: "Mom and Dad, I'm sorry. All my love, Bob."

His parents said the boy had taken a college entrance examination Saturday morning. When he returned home his father gave him a letter from a university informing him that he needed additional credits to attend that school. He appeared disappointed on reading it. The boy was a good student, his parents said.

MARY T. PADDOCK

Mrs. Mary T. Paddock, 73, a former missionary to China, died en route to a San Francisco hospital by ambulance yesterday after collapsing on Olive Street in Mill Valley about 11 a.m. on her way to the Mill Valley Community Church.

Death was tentatively attributed to a stroke.

She had resided at 107 Cornelia Avenue, Mill Valley, since 1923.

Mrs. Paddock was the wife of Bernard H. Paddock, a former Mill Valley builder, now retired.

Mrs. Paddock was born in Monroe, Wis. She was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, taught school in Wisconsin three years and then went as a missionary teacher for the Methodist Church to Yenping, in Fukien Province, China.

While in Yenping she met and married Paddock, who was principal of a Methodist Church school. The Paddocks' first daughter, Dorothy, was born there. She is now Mrs. Walter Hirt and lives in Santa Barbara.

The Paddocks returned to Mill Valley in 1923. Mrs. Paddock took over charge of Young Women's Christian Assn. summer camps which were held at a large cottage on Cornella Avenue. She held this job 25 years.

She was a member of the Mill Valley Community Church.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Paddock is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jean Strawbridge of Concord, Contra Costa County, and Mrs. Hirt; three sisters, Mrs. Emma Kubly, Mrs. Lydia Hartwig, and Ophelia Tschudy of Monroe, Wis.; seven brothers, Andrew, Art, Benjamin and Emil Tschudy of Monroe; Rev. Fred Tschudy of Long Beach; Lionel Tschudy of Amarillo, Tex., and Ted Tschudy of Cheyenne, and by one grandson.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Mill Valley Community Church. Friends may call at the Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley until 1 p.m. Wednesday. Interment will be in Cypress Lawn Cemetery, Colma.

The family has requested tributes be contributed to favorite charities.

ALLEN K. GIFFORD

Allen K. Gifford, 91, retired timekeeper for Marin Municipal Water District, died early today in a local hospital. He was operated on for a broken hip after he fell at his home last Monday.

He was employed as a timekeeper for the district from 1921 to 1936 when he retired. He and his wife made their home at 216 Bayview Street, San Rafael. He had lived in Marin County for 41 years and was a native of Iowa.

Gifford was a member of Marin Lodge 200, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

He is survived by his wife, Judith Ann; a daughter, Mrs. Gene Lakeman of San Rafael, and two grandsons.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Harry Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

EMILY GRISSELL

Mrs. Emily Grissell, 64, mother of Mrs. Bettylou Hutton of 251 Flagstone Terrace, Marinwood, and Santa Cruz resident, died yesterday in a local hospital after a four-month illness.

Mrs. Grissell had worked in the Santa Cruz County recorder's office since 1946. Mrs. Hutton brought her to a Marin County hospital in November when she became ill.

Mrs. Grissell is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Hutton, and three sisters, Mrs. Helen Center and Miss Ida Wollaug of San Francisco and Mrs. Theodore Sherwood of Redwood City, and two granddaughters.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Do Germs Cause Disease?

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

There are many types of germs and all of them have a place in the scheme of things, just as insects, birds, fish and animals are necessary to maintain the balance of nature. You may be a normal healthy man or woman but at this moment there are multitudes of beneficial germs at work within your body. Without them you would become desperately ill . . . These are the germs we seldom read about in the newspapers and magazines.

Take as an example the colon bacillus (escheri-chia coli), a germ which is essential to good health. It breaks down waste matter in the bowels for easier elimination and does other important jobs. Other varieties of germs perform equally important work in other parts of the body. The atmosphere around us is always thick with germs — some good, some bad—but we are not always sick. Why not?

Resistance to germs and disease depends on the proper functioning of the nervous system, the master system of the body. When the nerve supplying a certain organ is pinched or blocked by a misaligned bone in the spine, the affected organ will lose its resistance. Disease strikes when germs begin to prey on the weakened organs, but the same germs are powerless against a healthy organ.

Often, an organ will regain its strength and fight off disease germs once the interference with its nerve supply is corrected.

Chiropractors are experts in restoring and maintaining nerve function. They do this by finding the nerve interference in the spine and by adjusting the misaligned spinal bone (vertebra) quickly and painlessly by hand.

Nixon Predicts Strong GOP State Surge

EL SEGUNDO (UPI)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says, "There's a spirit running in the state—the people want a change in Sacramento."

Nixon, in an address to the annual convention of the California Republican Assembly yesterday, predicted the Republican Party will win the governorship of California in 1962 and show increased strength throughout the state.

GIVES NO HINT

He did not mention any political aspirations of his own, although he already has announced he will not be a candidate for governor, announcement many Republicans hesitate to accept.

The three-day conference ended yesterday with the 500 assembly members passing a resolution to oppose communism, but at the same time condemning extremist organizations which recklessly use the charge of communism to slander persons.

Robert C. Lindsey of San Jose, a trucking executive, was elected president to succeed G. Harvey Mydland of Whittier. Mydland was named executive of the California Republican Development Fund.

Other officers elected included Jack Pedder, Lafayette, secretary; James Flournoy, Los Angeles, assistant secretary; William Ventre Jr., Gilroy, treasurer; Edgar L. McCoubrey, Palm Springs, assistant treasurer, and Earl Sun Louie, San Francisco, sergeant at arms.

VICE PRESIDENTS

Eleven vice presidents were chosen.

Assembly delegates adopted a resolution chiding the California Democratic Council for approving United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson's statement he felt Red China eventually would be admitted to the world organization.

Other resolutions urged:

Defeat of Assembly bills to allow candidates in local elections to place their party affiliations after names on the ballot and limiting absentee balloting.

Reorganization of the California executive branch to reduce overlapping agencies.

San Francisco Mayor George Christopher followed Nixon to the rostrom and his remarks augmented Nixon's advice to Republican candidates that they would stage "healthy primary contests" but should save most of their ammunition for the Democrats.

Washington Allen Bartlett was the first alcalde of Yerba Buena (now San Francisco), appointed, Aug 6, 1846, by Capt. John B. Montgomery of the USS Portsmouth.

Young Demos In Split On Constitution

A group headed by state president Berrien Moore of Santa Monica adopted a new constitution calling for establishment of regions instead of north-south divisions and election of officers on a statewide basis.

The presidency formerly was alternated between Northern and Southern California.

The action resulted in a walkout of representatives of 14 northern and 21 southern counties, including national committeewoman Barbara Miller and Committeeman Rudy Nothenberg. Others were Northern Chairman Larry Ones and Southern Chairman Irwin Levin.

They charged the convention committees were "illegally and undemocratically constituted in that they did not allow open, full participation of member clubs." They said about 850 votes from clubs known or suspected to be in opposition to the views o fincumbent officers were disallowed on technicalities.

The group announced it would continue operations under the old constitution and urged Moore to call a state central committee meeting within 30 days to resolve the split.

BACK AGAIN

Capistrano Swallows On Schedule

Hundred flew in yesterday morning to join the dozens of early arrivals which oldtimers here dub as scouts.

About 2,000 early risers were on hand to make sure the birds fulfilled their traditional feat of returning to this 185-year-old mission on St. Joseph's Day, March 19.

More swallows will arrive from their wintering grounds in Central and South America over the next few weeks.

French Ask Swiss Help Set Up Algeria Talks

BERN, Switzerland (UPI) — France has asked Switzerland for her "good services" in connection with the forthcoming French-Algerian talks aimed at settling the 7-year-old Algerian war, the Foreign Ministry said today.

The announcement said French Ambassador Etienne Dennery told Robert Kohli, secretary-general of the Foreign Ministry, that "negotiations between the French government and the provisional government of the Algerian republic will be initiated shortly."

Dennery told Kohli that "the Swiss government will be asked for certain good services about whose nature it will be informed later."

Switzerland's "good services" were expected to include police protection for the Algerian delegation which will live on the Swiss side of Lake Geneva

Novatan Panics After S.F. Accident, Jailed

Robert E. Reilly's car struck a pedestrian at Union and Laguna Streets in San Francisco Saturday.

Reilly, a 29-year-old office manager who lives at 1272 Lynwood Drive, Novato, stopped immediately, asked a bystander to call an ambulance, went to a bar to get a first aid kit, and when the ambulance arrived, helped load his victim into it. But as he did so, blood from the elderly pedestrian's wounds oozed onto his hands.

Reilly looked at the blood on his hands, panicked, leaped into his car and drove away, he told San Francisco police yesterday. And police accident investigators has not yet arrived.

Reilly was booked into San Francisco City Prison on a felony hit-run driving charge, then released on $600 bail.

The victim, Joe Michelin, 75, of San Francisco, was reported in critical condition today in San Francisco General Hospital, suffering from internal injuries and a pelvic fracture.

Reilly telephoned San Francisco police yesterday. He told them he had been unable to sleep Saturday night, thinking about the accident. Police asked him to report at police headquarters, which he did.

Inspector Harvey Decter said that when police finally arrived at the accident scene, witnesses told them the driver had stopped and given aid to the victim, but then had left.

Reilly is office manager for the Pontiac Motor Co.'s zone office in San Francisco. He is married and has three small daughters.

Mistrial Bid Denied Again For Corbett

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—Defense attorneys made a second effort today to gain a mistrial in the case of Joseph Corbett Jr., former Marin County murderer accured of slaying wealthy Adolph Coors III, and again were rebuffed.

A recess was called when chunks of plaster over the jury box fell to the floor. Hasty repairs were made.

The defense motion was based on the fact that coffee was taken to the jurors Saturday in a Coors brewery box. The box was left in the jury room. The slain man was head of the Coors brewery.

Dist. Judge Christian D. Stoner severely scolded the bailiff, but denied the defense claim that the container could be prejudicial to Corbett's case.

A jury of eight men and four women with a woman auxiliary juror was chosen Friday night.

Judge Stoner denied a defense motion Saturday for a directed verdict of acquittal. William H. Erickson, a defense attorney, argued the district attorney's opening statement indicated he had no evidence to connect Corbett with the slaying.

District Atty. Ronald J. Hardesty has said he will not seek the death penalty although ready to call a witness willing to testify she saw Coors and Corbett struggling on a rural road Feb. 9, 1960, the day the brewery executive vanished.

Corbett was convicted of a Marin County murder in 1950; in 1955 he escaped from Chino state prison.

Novato Chamber Honors Five Men For Service To City

Five men won special citations from the Novato Chamber om Commerce Saturday night for their service to the city.

The fifth recipient, Peter J. Ferrarese, was given his award in Novato Hospital just before the dinner. He is recovering from surgery.

Ferrarese is manager of the Novato branch of the First National Bank in San Rafael and a vice president of the firm. He is chairman of the joint chamber-city highway study committee, a former trustee of the Novato Unified School District and a trustee of the Novato Fire District.

Palmer, an attorney, was instrumental in home rule study which resulted in incorporation of Novato, Jan. 20, 1960. He is the city attorney.

Rasmussen, an architect, is a past chamber president, one of the backers of the county's North Marin master plan, and a former member of the county planning commission.

Lerch is a real estate agent who was an organizer in the drive to gain a state college near Novato, a past chamber president and historian in a movie film of the North Marin area.

Wise is manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. office in Novato and a past chamber president. He heads a Chamber-Hamilton Air Force Base committee on community relations.

Butcher Local Elects

James Smith of 16 Willow Avenue, Fairfax, has been re-elected chairman of Butchers Local Union 115. The re-election of Smith, a meat cutter who is president of the Marin County branch of the union, was unanimous.

VICE PRESIDENTS

Eleven vice presidents were chosen.

Assembly delegates adopted a resolution chiding the California Democratic Council for approving United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson's statement he felt Red China eventually would be admitted to the world organization.

Other resolutions urged:

Defeat of Assembly bills to allow candidates in local elections to place their party affiliations after names on the ballot and limiting absentee balloting.

Reorganization of the California executive branch to reduce overlapping agencies.

San Francisco Mayor George Christopher followed Nixon to the rostrom and his remarks augmented Nixon's advice to Republican candidates that they would stage "healthy primary contests" but should save most of their ammunition for the Democrats.

Washington Allen Bartlett was the first alcalde of Yerba Buena (now San Francisco), appointed, Aug 6, 1846, by Capt. John B. Montgomery of the USS Portsmouth.

Capistrano Swallows On Schedule

Hundred flew in yesterday morning to join the dozens of early arrivals which oldtimers here dub as scouts.

About 2,000 early risers were on hand to make sure the birds fulfilled their traditional feat of returning to this 185-year-old mission on St. Joseph's Day, March 19.

More swallows will arrive from their wintering grounds in Central and South America over the next few weeks.

Young Demos In Split On Constitution

A group headed by state president Berrien Moore of Santa Monica adopted a new constitution calling for establishment of regions instead of north-south divisions and election of officers on a statewide basis.

The presidency formerly was alternated between Northern and Southern California.

The action resulted in a walkout of representatives of 14 northern and 21 southern counties, including national committeewoman Barbara Miller and Committeeman Rudy Nothenberg. Others were Northern Chairman Larry Ones and Southern Chairman Irwin Levin.

They charged the convention committees were "illegally and undemocratically constituted in that they did not allow open, full participation of member clubs." They said about 850 votes from clubs known or suspected to be in opposition to the views o fincumbent officers were disallowed on technicalities.

The group announced it would continue operations under the old constitution and urged Moore to call a state central committee meeting within 30 days to resolve the split.

French Ask Swiss Help Set Up Algeria Talks

BERN, Switzerland (UPI) — France has asked Switzerland for her "good services" in connection with the f—coming French-Algerian talks aimed at settling the 7-year-old Algerian war, the Foreign Ministry said today.

The announcement said French Ambassador Etienne Dennery told Robert Kohli, secretary-general of the Foreign Ministry, that "negotiations between the French government and the provisional government of the Algerian republic will be initiated shortly."

Dennery told Kohli that "the Swiss government will be asked for certain good services about whose nature it will be informed later."

Switzerland's "good services" were expected to include police protection for the Algerian delegation which will live on the Swiss side of Lake Geneva

Novatan Panics After S.F. Accident, Jailed

Robert E. Reilly's car struck a pedestrian at Union and Laguna Streets in San Francisco Saturday.

Reilly, a 29-year-old office manager who lives at 1272 Lynwood Drive, Novato, stopped immediately, asked a bystander to call an ambulance, went to a bar to get a first aid kit, and when the ambulance arrived, helped load his victim into it. But as he did so, blood from the elderly pedestrian's wounds oozed onto his hands.

Reilly looked at the blood on his hands, panicked, leaped into his car and drove away, he told San Francisco police yesterday. And police accident investigators has not yet arrived.

Reilly was booked into San Francisco City Prison on a felony hit-run driving charge, then released on $600 bail.

The victim, Joe Michelin, 75, of San Francisco, was reported in critical condition today in San Francisco General Hospital, suffering from internal injuries and a pelvic fracture.

Reilly telephoned San Francisco police yesterday. He told them he had been unable to sleep Saturday night, thinking about the accident. Police asked him to report at police headquarters, which he did.

Inspector Harvey Decter said that when police finally arrived at the accident scene, witnesses told them the driver had stopped and given aid to the victim, but then had left.

Reilly is office manager for the Pontiac Motor Co.'s zone office in San Francisco. He is married and has three small daughters.

Mistrial Bid Denied Again For Corbett

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—Defense attorneys made a second effort today to gain a mistrial in the case of Joseph Corbett Jr., former Marin County murderer accured of slaying wealthy Adolph Coors III, and again were rebuffed.

A recess was called when chunks of plaster over the jury box fell to the floor. Hasty repairs were made.

The defense motion was based on the fact that coffee was taken to the jurors Saturday in a Coors brewery box. The box was left in the jury room. The slain man was head of the Coors brewery.

Dist. Judge Christian D. Stoner severely scolded the bailiff, but denied the defense claim that the container could be prejudicial to Corbett's case.

A jury of eight men and four women with a woman auxiliary juror was chosen Friday night.

Judge Stoner denied a defense motion Saturday for a directed verdict of acquittal. William H. Erickson, a defense attorney, argued the district attorney's opening statement indicated he had no evidence to connect Corbett with the slaying.

District Atty. Ronald J. Hardesty has said he will not seek the death penalty although ready to call a witness willing to testify she saw Coors and Corbett struggling on a rural road Feb. 9, 1960, the day the brewery executive vanished.

Corbett was convicted of a Marin County murder in 1950; in 1955 he escaped from Chino state prison.

Novato Chamber Honors Five Men For Service To City

Five men won special citations from the Novato Chamber om Commerce Saturday night for their service to the city.

The fifth recipient, Peter J. Ferrarese, was given his award in Novato Hospital just before the dinner. He is recovering from surgery.

Ferrarese is manager of the Novato branch of the First National Bank in San Rafael and a vice president of the firm. He is chairman of the joint chamber-city highway study committee, a former trustee of the Novato Unified School District and a trustee of the Novato Fire District.

Palmer, an attorney, was instrumental in home rule study which resulted in incorporation of Novato, Jan. 20, 1960. He is the city attorney.

Rasmussen, an architect, is a past chamber president, one of the backers of the county's North Marin master plan, and a former member of the county planning commission.

Lerch is a real estate agent who was an organizer in the drive to gain a state college near Novato, a past chamber president and historian in a movie film of the North Marin area.

Wise is manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Co. office in Novato and a past chamber president. He heads a Chamber-Hamilton Air Force Base committee on community relations.

Butcher Local Elects

James Smith of 16 Willow Avenue, Fairfax, has been re-elected chairman of Butchers Local Union 115. The re-election of Smith, a meat cutter who is president of the Marin County branch of the union, was unanimous.

Democratic Party Bosses Try To Grab Local Elections

Once again the bosses of the Democratic Party in California have launched a campaign to gain a larger field in which to operate.

This step has been long planned. It is based on the assumption that if all elected officials could be made partisan, that the numerically larger Democratic Party would be able to control more governmental operations.

The bill before the legislature is a AB 755 by San Francisco Assemblyman John A. O'Connell. It would permit candidates for county and city offices, except judges and county clerks, to put their party designation on the ballot.

The argument advanced is that this is a permissive measure (O'Connell's previous attempts at mandatory partisan elections failed) that candidates would not have to be partisan if they didn't want to.

That's the foot-in-the-door approach. It's quite obvious that a candidate in an area where registration of his party far outnumbered registration in the other party, would put his designation on the ballot and then criticize his opponent, if he happened to be of the other party, for not doing so. There's really nothing permissive about it.

What the Democratic Party leaders are trying to do, is to make all office holders subservient to a political machine, specifically, to the National Parties.

We believe that we should have political parties. We believe that our republican form of government would not operate properly without them. But we do not believe that local elections should be settled on the basis of international problems.

And that's exactly what would happen if local elections are made partisan.

Most people belong to a political party for either vague or very specific reasons. There are some whose reason dates back to high tariffs or because their fathers were in the party. Others became Democrats because Franklin Roosevelt offered many things to many people. Still others became Republicans for the same reason, FDR.

But these reasons, and many more, aren't a good basis for deciding whether there should be one way streets in San Rafael or whether the civic center should be constructed.

The reasons most people belong to a political party are not the reasons on which they should decide who their councilman, supervisor, sheriff or police chief should be.

Why then should a party want partisan elections? Purely to obtain power for the party leaders. If they are successful in establishing the doctrine of "party responsibility — everybody stick with the party," and then can make the local elections partisan too, they've got it made.

The first test of the bill in Assembly committee was strictly on party lines, all Democrats for, all Republicans against. There are more Democrats, it passed out of committee.

We hope the people will protest so loudly that the Democratic legislators will have enough backing to stand up to their party bosses and keep our local elections free of party politics.

Police Did Riot At City Hall

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In your letters column of March 14, Paul Haerle went to some trouble to criticize Milen Dempster's letter-writing technique, "professional liberals," Whittaker Chambers, the House Committee on Un-American Activities, Alger Hiss, "strident anti-Communism," a "free market of ideas," and the use of the cliche as being somehow un-American. Obviously this sort of letter makes for exciting reading.

But along the line Mr. Haerle made the point that he would like a "liberal" to answer the question: Were the San Francisco City Hall riot(s) (the plural is Mr. Haerle's) led by Communist agitators?

Well, Mr. Haerle, I am certainly not what might be construed by an sensible person who knows me a "liberal," but I feel it necessary to answer your question as one who likes to see justice done. This answer must be an unqualified no.

When those 400-odd policemen became carried away with the excitement of manhandling (sometimes brutally) a group of some 200 young men and women and for a time lost touch with their immediate authority (they were later severely reprimanded by the mayor of San Francisco) they were NOT the dupes of a Communist plot. While there may have been a few avowed Communists at the scene (violation of our Constitution always brings out the lunatic fringe) most were there under subpoena, and took no active part.

Now Mr. Haerle, as I said, I am certainly not a "liberal" as I see your interpretation. I don't intend to apologize for, nor try to rationalize the situation, which I gather you consider a liberal's function. Without doubt, the police DID riot, if you insist on the word, but they acted for reasons which had nothing to do with other than those shared by police everywhere, here or in Russia.

Mound Of Earth To Save Life

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

"A simple mound of earth" is all it would have taken to prevent the awful accident of Friday night.

It defies all sense of reason to spend so many millions of dollars to build super highways . . . fancy fences . . . overpasses . . . underpasses . . . and right on the road where cars pass by in opposite directions, the only separation between life and death is a six-inch curb, or worse, a painted double white line.

Without a doubt, a few trucks and bulldozers could build a simple mound of earth four feet high, the length of all freeways . . . thus preventing forever head-on collisions.

To those who would say . . . a mound of this sort would be unsightly . . . the top could be planted for beautification not as they are now—ripped but in memorium.

Printed Matter Should Be Perfect

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a former proofreader, I notice the slightest error in a newspaper. Sometimes the I-J has errors. You had "our's" in a head. Our is a possessive pronoun, so doesn't need an apostrophe "s."

"Its" is a possessive pronoun—"it's" is a contraction of "it is." "Our's" would have to be a contraction, but of what?

However, to me, the worst yet was the spelling of Christ with a small "c" (Monday's I-J).

I noticed in another paper (not the I-J) a linotype operator, undoubtedly to economize on space, had abbreviated the name of Jesus Christ to J. Christ. When his attention was called to it, he said he should have made it "Mr. J. Christ."

I argue that all informational media such as TV, radio and printed matter should be perfect in spelling and grammar, as too many people look to such media as a guide. Errors are inexcusable.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

People Are A Lot More Fun Than Zoning, Planning Or Slopes

What is a teen-ager? According to Sarah Wilcox of Mill Valley, "It's one who bounces easily."

According to John Goddard, 17, who was listening to records at no charge in the Village Music the other day, it's "someone who eats six meals a day, one of which is a good sound one."

Albert Robertson, in his early teens, says "a teen-ager is someone who likes to dance." Robertson told Councilman George D. Monardo the other night flatly that a youth is just becoming a teenager in seventh and eighth grade and, naturally, this is when you first like to dance.

MONARDO HAD asked why teen-agers have to have dancing in seventh and eighth grades. "It seems to me," he said, "they have lots of time to learn dancing after the 11th and 12th grades."

At the music store, Bill Kott, 15, a seventh grader, said "dances give you some place to go."

Goddard said "without dances, there is nothing you can do at night. The only other place to go is the bowling alley and you can't go there until you are 16."

IT IS GOOD to hear the city fathers talking to teenagers. As faithful followers of city business, we sometimes get the feeling that the business is so wrapped up with zoning, planned unit development, slope policy and "goolop" that no one ever stops to think about the people.

People are my favorite types. Dogs next. We're getting more people but it seems we are also getting more things.

Al Baudour of the Mill Valley French Laundry says he is getting more and more dirty shirts. He has about doubled his business over last year.

Mack Staley at Sonapa Farms says more and more people are eating chicken through the week. "It used to be," he said, "that people ate chicken on Sundays, as a special affair."

Michael Wornum says "there are more and more stop signs as I drive around Marin . . . it's a point of no return on stop signs. You're trying to get people to move —not stop."

ROGER MURPHY SR., says more and more people are doing strange things. For example, he was sleeping nicely Wednesday at 1 a.m. when he heard a terrible noise, looked out the window and found an enormous Greyhound bus boiling along, trying to get up his narrow canyon road on West Blithedale Avenue.

Did you go out and advise? "Go out?" he said, "it was raining. I called the police." It seems the bus driver was from Los Angeles and looking for the bus depot in Lytton Square. "He missed," said Murphy wryly.

WE MET A MALT maker the other day. Name is Joseph Redland Redfern Murley. "Just call me Red," he said. "They also call me Colorado, Spanish for red."

Murley, who lives at Belveron Gardens, works for Bauer and Schweitzer Malting Co. in San Francisco and has been malt making for a dozen years. He said malt is made from barley and "we send it to Papeete, Johannesburg and Nova Scotia."

Murley has no sense of smell, but said malt has a sweet, nutty odor. He likes to recall Joe E. Lewis' saying "waked up and said 'well I made it again'." Red says, "well I have been doing that since 1913, living on borrowed time—and I love it."

It Will Be Up To Congress, Courts To Decide Rights Of School Aid

WASHINGTON—On March 3 Archbishop Alter of Cincinnati issued a statement on federal aid to education. He summarized the views of the administrative board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which speaks in the name of the Roman Catholic bishops of the United States.

The statement says that "in the event that there is federal aid to education we are deeply convinced that in justice Catholic school children should be given the right to participate. Respecting the form of participation, we hold it to be strictly within the framework of the constitution that long-term, low-interest loans to private institutions could be part of the federal aid program."

THIS OPINION on the constitutionality of such loans differs, as we know, from the expressed views of President Kennedy. The difference is very important indeed. But the difference is not so important that it should be allowed to prevent the enactment of the President's program to give federal aid to the public schools.

Whether, as the bishops contend, there should also be federal aid to private schools, is a separate question. It is a question that can be settled conclusively only by the Congress and the Supreme Court.

A CLOUD has been cast by the final sentence in Archbishop Alter's statement. The sentence says that "in the event a federal aid program is enacted which excludes children in private schools, these children will be the victims of discriminatory legislation. There will be no alternative but to oppose such discrimination."

This seems to say that if Congress refuses to authorize the loans to the parochial schools, the bishops will seek to defeat the federal aid program.

They assert that to use public money for the public schools and to deny it to private schools is "discrimination." Why? Because the Catholic parent, or for that matter any parent who sends his child to a private school, is paying twice over—once as a taxpayer for the public school which his child does not attend, and once as tuition fees to the private school which his child does attend.

WHETHER IT IS fair to describe as "discrimination" such double payments for education can best be tested by asking what would be the situation if private schools were supported by the taxpayer. In that case the parent whose child goes to the public school will be paying twice—once to support the public school, which his child attends, and once to support the private school which his child does not attend.

In candor it must, however, be said that the chances of Congress and of the courts upholding a loan bill appear to be small. The chances would not be increased by threatening to defeat the measures to give federal aid to the public schools.

Police Did Riot At City Hall

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In your letters column of March 14, Paul Haerle went to some trouble to criticize Milen Dempster's letter-writing technique, "professional liberals," Whittaker Chambers, the House Committee on Un-American Activities, Alger Hiss, "strident anti-Communism," a "free market of ideas," and the use of the cliche as being somehow un-American. Obviously this sort of letter makes for exciting reading.

But along the line Mr. Haerle made the point that he would like a "liberal" to answer the question: Were the San Francisco City Hall riot(s) (the plural is Mr. Haerle's) led by Communist agitators?

Well, Mr. Haerle, I am certainly not what might be construed by an sensible person who knows me a "liberal," but I feel it necessary to answer your question as one who likes to see justice done. This answer must be an unqualified no.

When those 400-odd policemen became carried away with the excitement of manhandling (sometimes brutally) a group of some 200 young men and women and for a time lost touch with their immediate authority (they were later severely reprimanded by the mayor of San Francisco) they were NOT the dupes of a Communist plot. While there may have been a few avowed Communists at the scene (violation of our Constitution always brings out the lunatic fringe) most were there under subpoena, and took no active part.

Now Mr. Haerle, as I said, I am certainly not a "liberal" as I see your interpretation. I don't intend to apologize for, nor try to rationalize the situation, which I gather you consider a liberal's function. Without doubt, the police DID riot, if you insist on the word, but they acted for reasons which had nothing to do with other than those shared by police everywhere, here or in Russia.

Mound Of Earth To Save Life

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

"A simple mound of earth" is all it would have taken to prevent the awful accident of Friday night.

It defies all sense of reason to spend so many millions of dollars to build super highways . . . fancy fences . . . overpasses . . . underpasses . . . and right on the road where cars pass by in opposite directions, the only separation between life and death is a six-inch curb, or worse, a painted double white line.

Without a doubt, a few trucks and bulldozers could build a simple mound of earth four feet high, the length of all freeways . . . thus preventing forever head-on collisions.

To those who would say . . . a mound of this sort would be unsightly . . . the top could be planted for beautification not as they are now—ripped but in memorium.

Nurses Win Press Book Award

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It is indeed a pleasure to be able to inform you that the Marin County Nurses' Association received the Press Book Award for first place in classification II at the state convention of the California Nurses' Association held in Berkeley last week.

Classification II includes district associations in California with a membership of from 101 to 300 registered nurses.

Obviously the award could not have been earned or received without the excellent coverage given to news about nurses and nursing by the Independent-Journal.

As a responsible party to the earning of the award, you unquestionably must share the gratification we feel for having received this signal honor.

Printed Matter Should Be Perfect

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

As a former proofreader, I notice the slightest error in a newspaper. Sometimes the I-J has errors. You had "our's" in a head. Our is a possessive pronoun, so doesn't need an apostrophe "s."

"Its" is a possessive pronoun—"it's" is a contraction of "it is." "Our's" would have to be a contraction, but of what?

However, to me, the worst yet was the spelling of Christ with a small "c" (Monday's I-J).

I noticed in another paper (not the I-J) a linotype operator, undoubtedly to economize on space, had abbreviated the name of Jesus Christ to J. Christ. When his attention was called to it, he said he should have made it "Mr. J. Christ."

I argue that all informational media such as TV, radio and printed matter should be perfect in spelling and grammar, as too many people look to such media as a guide. Errors are inexcusable.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRUCE COLEMAN

People Are A Lot More Fun Than Zoning, Planning Or Slopes

What is a teen-ager? According to Sarah Wilcox of Mill Valley, "It's one who bounces easily."

According to John Goddard, 17, who was listening to records at no charge in the Village Music the other day, it's "someone who eats six meals a day, one of which is a good sound one."

Albert Robertson, in his early teens, says "a teen-ager is someone who likes to dance." Robertson told Councilman George D. Monardo the other night flatly that a youth is just becoming a teenager in seventh and eighth grade and, naturally, this is when you first like to dance.

MONARDO HAD asked why teen-agers have to have dancing in seventh and eighth grades. "It seems to me," he said, "they have lots of time to learn dancing after the 11th and 12th grades."

Goddard said "without dances, there is nothing you can do at night. The only other place to go is the bowling alley and you can't go there until you are 16."

IT IS GOOD to hear the city fathers talking to teenagers. As faithful followers of city business, we sometimes get the feeling that the business is so wrapped up with zoning, planned unit development, slope policy and "goolop" that no one ever stops to think about the people.

People are my favorite types. Dogs next. We're getting more people but it seems we are also getting more things.

Al Baudour of the Mill Valley French Laundry says he is getting more and more dirty shirts. He has about doubled his business over last year.

Mack Staley at Sonapa Farms says more and more people are eating chicken through the week. "It used to be," he said, "that people ate chicken on Sundays, as a special affair."

Michael Wornum says "there are more and more stop signs as I drive around Marin . . . it's a point of no return on stop signs. You're trying to get people to move —not stop."

ROGER MURPHY SR., says more and more people are doing strange things. For example, he was sleeping nicely Wednesday at 1 a.m. when he heard a terrible noise, looked out the window and found an enormous Greyhound bus boiling along, trying to get up his narrow canyon road on West Blithedale Avenue.

Did you go out and advise? "Go out?" he said, "it was raining. I called the police." It seems the bus driver was from Los Angeles and looking for the bus depot in Lytton Square. "He missed," said Murphy wryly.

WE MET A MALT maker the other day. Name is Joseph Redland Redfern Murley. "Just call me Red," he said. "They also call me Colorado, Spanish for red."

Murley, who lives at Belveron Gardens, works for Bauer and Schweitzer Malting Co. in San Francisco and has been malt making for a dozen years. He said malt is made from barley and "we send it to Papeete, Johannesburg and Nova Scotia."

Murley has no sense of smell, but said malt has a sweet, nutty odor. He likes to recall Joe E. Lewis' saying "waked up and said 'well I made it again'." Red says, "well I have been doing that since 1913, living on borrowed time—and I love it."

WALTER LIPPMANN

It Will Be Up To Congress, Courts To Decide Rights Of School Aid

WASHINGTON—On March 3 Archbishop Alter of Cincinnati issued a statement on federal aid to education. He summarized the views of the administrative board of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which speaks in the name of the Roman Catholic bishops of the United States.

The statement says that "in the event that there is federal aid to education we are deeply convinced that in justice Catholic school children should be given the right to participate. Respecting the form of participation, we hold it to be strictly within the framework of the constitution that long-term, low-interest loans to private institutions could be part of the federal aid program."

THIS OPINION on the constitutionality of such loans differs, as we know, from the expressed views of President Kennedy. The difference is very important indeed. But the difference is not so important that it should be allowed to prevent the enactment of the President's program to give federal aid to the public schools.

Whether, as the bishops contend, there should also be federal aid to private schools, is a separate question. It is a question that can be settled conclusively only by the Congress and the Supreme Court.

A CLOUD has been cast by the final sentence in Archbishop Alter's statement. The sentence says that "in the event a federal aid program is enacted which excludes children in private schools, these children will be the victims of discriminatory legislation. There will be no alternative but to oppose such discrimination."

This seems to say that if Congress refuses to authorize the loans to the parochial schools, the bishops will seek to defeat the federal aid program.

They assert that to use public money for the public schools and to deny it to private schools is "discrimination." Why? Because the Catholic parent, or for that matter any parent who sends his child to a private school, is paying twice over—once as a taxpayer for the public school which his child does not attend, and once as tuition fees to the private school which his child does attend.

WHETHER IT IS fair to describe as "discrimination" such double payments for education can best be tested by asking what would be the situation if private schools were supported by the taxpayer. In that case the parent whose child goes to the public school will be paying twice—once to support the public school, which his child attends, and once to support the private school which his child does not attend.

In candor it must, however, be said that the chances of Congress and of the courts upholding a loan bill appear to be small. The chances would not be increased by threatening to defeat the measures to give federal aid to the public schools.

'Prodigal Son' Story Told In Lenten Series

At the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Richardson Bay in Tiburon yesterday Pastor George F. Walker Jr. completed his series of Lenten sermons on the familiar Biblical parable of "The Prodigal Son."

In an interpretation of the final portion of the parable, found in the Gospel of Luke, Pastor Walker presented the sermon itself in narrative form:

"So the boy arose and went home. He had a well worked out confession. He had rehearsed it a hundred times or more: 'Make me as one of your hired servants . . .' And while the son was yet a great distance away the father saw him. He had looked down that same road every hour of every day since the lad left; his eyes had become familiar with every curve, every fence post, every rock.

"The father would not have recognized the boy from the clothes he wore, but they could not disguise him. They could not hid the characteristic walk, the way he carried his shoulders and arms, the rhythmic swing of his gait. An author writes of this moment: "Every feature had been treasured in memory, looked at, wept over many times during those weary years. Seeing him at last, the father ran with incoherent joy and kissed the boy again and again."

"Let us now turn our attention to the father. The prayer of the prodigal was well known to him. Wisely, he let his son begin it, for he knew that this was an indispensable part of becoming a whole person. He let the boy start his confession but would not let him finish. Why should he? He knew the whole sordid story. Had he not lived in the far country with his son these many months? Had he not agonized and winced every time the young man had thrown himself against the rapier of self-indulgent destruction?

"In this tender moment of embrace, when the father picks the son up in his arms—all his filthy rags and diseased body—the son begins to know the dimension of a love he has never dreamed existed. His love for himself has blinded his eyes to the love his father has had for him all the years of his life. When the broken, ruptured and strained relationships are healed by confession and forgiveness, this is his greatest moment of freedom.

"Bring quickly the best robe; all the sordid details of the past are to be covered: 'And put a ring on his finger;' a badge of sonship and authority must be restored. 'And shoes on his feet;' he is no longer to be a slave to anyone. 'And bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry;' a relationship that is vital to the whole family has been restored.

Two of the 15 subspecies of muskrat are native to California.

His love for himself has blinded his eyes to the love his father has had for him all the years of his life. When the broken, ruptured and strained relationships are healed by confession and forgiveness, this is his greatest moment of freedom.

"Bring quickly the best robe; all the sordid details of the past are to be covered: 'And put a ring on his finger;' a badge of sonship and authority must be restored. 'And shoes on his feet;' he is no longer to be a slave to anyone. 'And bring the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry;' a relationship that is vital to the whole family has been restored.

School Aides Meeting

The Marin County Elementary Administrators Assn., southern section, will meet at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow at the Spinnaker restaurant in Sausalito. Marcella Schiller, kindergarten teacher at Sausalito's Central School, will discuss "reading readiness at the kindergarten level."

To Do Research

Robert B. McCreadie, Sausalito, and Gary L. Widman, 165 Helen's Lane, Mill Valley, were named assistant research editors of the Hastings Law Journal, at a staff banquet in San Francisco Saturday. The journal is a quarterly review published by the University of California's Hastings College in San Francisco.

'MADE IN U.S.A.' LABELS MAY BE PHONY FABRIC

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Legislation to outlaw phony "made in U.S.A." labels on foreign-manufactured items was set for introduction in the Senate today.

Sen. John Holmdahl, (D-Oakland), said his bill is designed to prevent foreign firms from taking advantage of "buy American" promotions.

Holmdahl said, "many buyers prefer American products because of a belief in their superior quality. Others believe American jobs and payrolls are protected by such purchases.

"Whatever the buyer's reasons, it is unfair and unjustified that articles truely produced and manufactured in the United States must compete with products falsely represented as such."

Holmdahl said his measure would not tamper with a person's right to buy foreign-made products if they so desire.

Courses In Disaster Survival Will Be Offered To Families Of Marin

Special courses in survival techniques for families and individuals will be offered in Marin County for the first time beginning April 3, Alan Bruce announced today in his role of county civil defense coordinator.

The techniques will be applicable in case of war or other disaster.

Courses are to be offered without fee by the Adult Education Department of San Rafael High School District and Tamalpais Union High School District in cooperation with the county civil defense office.

Bruce pointed out that "in any widespread disaster the individual and family will, at least for a period of time, have to take care of themselves without help from any government authority" and said every adult Soviet citizen is required to take 22 hours of survival instruction.

Regular high school teachers will serve as instructors on a basis of completing an intensive training program.

Dewey Fink will instruct in San Rafael, Maurice A. Weinger in Mill Valley. The San Rafael program is under direction of George F. Lester and the Tamalpais High program will be conducted by Harry G. Russell.

Topics will include mass reactions to danger, effects of population concentration in California, possibilities of accidental war, thermonuclear hazards, chemical and biological warfare, counter-measures to natural disasters, specific defensive and protective measures favoring family survival from thermonuclear hazards, and similar measures protecting against hazards of biological and chemical warfare.

Registration will be made at the first session at 7:30 p. m. April 3 at the main office of San Rafael High School and in Room 17 of Tamalpais High School.

Six two-hour sessions are scheduled, from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. every Monday for six weeks. Additional sessions may be scheduled, Bruce said.

Buffet, Bar Will Open Thursday

Scotto's Buffet, a new bar and restaurant at 535 Fourth Street, San Rafael, will open Thursday. It is located in the building formerly occupied by the Rafael Market. The building has been completely remodeled.

The establishment, owned by Joseph Scotto, 47 Santa Barbara Avenue, San Anselmo, formerly in the contracting business, will be managed by Bennie Ford, well known Bay Area boxing promoter and matchmaker. Ford has lived at 6 Kilgore Lane, San Anselmo, for the past two years.

The restaurant will feature Italian specialties prepared by Ford himself and a la carte orders and hot sandwiches under the supervision of Herbert (Tex) Trent, 241 Sequoia Drive, San Anselmo, who has been engaged as chef.

It will be open Mondays through Saturdays from 10 a.m.

Ford said Scotto's Buffet has been authorized by all boxing promoters in the Bay Area to handle the sale of fight tickets exclusively in Marin.

He added that he has been approved by the California State Athletic Commission to continue as a fight promoter and matchmaker and expects to have several matches this spring at the Golden Gate Boxing Club in San Francisco and at the San Francisco Auditorium.

Boy In 'Scout Family' To Get Eagle Award

Ernest Lewin, who comes from Marin County's scoutingest family, will receive the highest Boy Scout honor that a boy can earn tomorrow.

The 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lewin of 513 Idylberry Road, Merinwood, has two brothers and two sisters—and all of them, plus father and mother, are in the Scout movement one way or another.

Sister Marcella is a Girl Scout in Troop 261, sister Lynn a Girl Scout in Troop 177. Brother Gilbert is a Boy Scout and brother Mario a Cub Scout, with Troop 64 and Pack 64 respectively.

Ernest himself is an Explorer Scout with Post 222 and a freshman at Terra Linda High School.

He will receive an Eagle award at a court of honor in the Church of the Nativity, 350 Blackstone Drive, Marinwood, at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

The award will be made by Dr. G. W. Magladry, Marin Council scout commissioner and Ernie's jamboree scoutmaster when a trip was made last summer to the National Jamboree at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Charles Dwight, former scoutmaster of Troop 64, will describe "What It Means to Be a Scout."

Assisting in the award will be the Eagle Scout Honor Society, the Knights of Dunamus, under leadership of Eagle Luke Wayer of Mill Valley. Awards will be made to other boys in the troop by Scoutmaster Victor E. Sloman.

Kimball Concern Introduces New Portable Space Divider Partition

Kimball Manufacturing Corp., San Rafael, has introduced a new type of portable space divider partition for office and factory use. President William R. Kimball said it marks the company's initial venture into the building industry. The firm's principal output recently has been in fiberglas water skis and outdoor billboard trim.

The new divider is constructed with integrated aluminum extrusions and a honeycomb core, with either baked enamel, aluminum, plywood, fiberglas or Formica bonded to the exterior face.

Panels and posts are quickly joined together and once installed the partitioning unit can be increased or altered by simply attaching more panels.

The company is in the process of appointing distributors. The Northern California distributor, already appointed, is Enterprise Commercial Co., Emeryville.

RAYMOND A. GRINSELL of Ames Ford Sales, San Rafael, has been selected as one of the nation's leading Ford dealership salesmen. He received Ford Motor Co.'s Top Hatter award Saturday at a banquet in San Francisco.

The award is made to only 1 per cent of all Ford dealership salesmen and represents Ford's highest sales honor.

Memberships in the 300-500 Club were also presented to Ames Ford salesmen A. Serio, J. C. Leatherwood, J. Oberg, Osborne E. Bell, Clair Anderson, T. Edwards, T. Hollister, Don Fraser, R. Meader, R. Bullock and J. Clahan for excellent retail sales performances.

This week, Ford dealers are starting their big spring station wagon sales drive. Ames manager Louis Concilio said local prospects are good for a strong showing this season, with plenty of Ford and Falcon wagons on hand to meet the expected demand.

CARROLL WALKER, 44 Las Casas Drive, San Rafael, is attending a leadership conference of the Equitable Life Assurance Society at Bal Harbour, Fla. He is a member of the company's A. D. Hemphill agency in San Francisco, vice president of the San Francisco Life Underwriters Assn. and vice president of that city's Chartered Life Underwriters chapter.

Subjects being discussed are personal estate planning, business insurance and employee benefit plans.

NAMED AS AN outstanding employee for his firm, the Allstate Insurance Co., is Robert E. Roeser, 216 Los Angeles Boulevard, San Anselmo.

At a recent ceremony and luncheon in Allstate's Menlo Park regional officer Roeser was presented a handsome desk clock in recognition of his contributions to the organization in the San Rafael area where he has represented it for the past six years. He maintains an office in the Sears Roebuck and Co. store at 1122 Fourth Street.

IF YOU ARE a key man in your organization, responsible for the safety of others, you should have a date tonight to attend the accident prevention program at Carpenters Hall, 647 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

Guest speaker is Robert Evenden, safety manager for Guy F. Atkinson Co. Time: 7:30 p.m.

AWARD FOR A BRAVE reverse approach to a touchy subject goes to Jess France Jr., San Rafael resident manager of York and Co., investment brokers, who spoke last Thursday night before the Millbrae chapter of the Lions Club on "How to Lose Money on the Stock Market."

Tennessee's Rep. Reece, 71, Succumbs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. B. Carroll Reece of Tennessee, one-time Republican national chairman and long allied with the most conservative forces of his party, is dead at 71.

Reece died yesterday in the Bethesda, Md., Navy Medical Center, which he entered in January. The hospital reported death was caused by lung cancer.

He was in and out of the hospital several times after minor surgery, and even went to the capitol to vote against the enlargement of the House Rules Committee, of which he was a member.

Reece served as national chairman from 1946 to 1949, resigning his House seat to do so. Under his direction the GOP captured control of Congress in 1946—the Congress President Harry S. Truman assailed as a "do-nothing Congress" in his successful 1948 presidential campaign.

Reece was serving his 18th term in the House. He suffered only one defeat, in 1930, and after that was not even opposed by Democratic candidates in his staunchly Republican district, one of two GOP districts in Tennessee.

National Tournament Cage Stars Quizzed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Several star basketball players here for the National Invitation Tournament faced secret questioning today in the college basketball bribe scandal.

A spokesman for the district attorney's office said that players here for the Madison Square Garden tournament as well as "others" would be met at undisclosed locations to dig for more evidence in the gambling fixes which detectives said dwarfed the 1951 scandals.

The D. A.'s office, however, refused to identify any of the persons facing questioning on grounds that the players would be more willing to cooperate if they were not named in public.

Two men have been arrested in connection with the fixes which operated by bribing players to "shave" points on their team's score, providing the gamblers with a winning margin. Aaron Wagman, 28, and Joseph Hacken, 41, both of New York, were picked up last week.

The D.A.'s office said the bribes involved many colleges in many states and a "good number" of players. Except for Seton Hall and the University of Connecticut, however, no colleges have been named.

Officials charged that a Connecticut player was paid $1,000 to shave points in a game with Colgate March 1 and two Seton Hall players were given $1,000 each to hold down their team's score in a game with Dayton Feb. 9.

Two Seton Hall players, Henry Gunther, 21, New York and Arthur Hicks, 21, Chicago, who are cooperating in the case, are staying in a hotel here to isolate them, the D.A.'s office said.

FAMOUS GUN COLLECTION AT SPORTS SHOW

One of the world's greatest collections of old guns, featuring two revolvers carried by General George A. Custer, will be exhibited at the Marin Rod and Gun Club Sports and Boat Show Friday night through Sunday, at the Bermuda Palms, San Rafael.

Frank Brabant, curator of the Harold's Club Museum, announced that the crowd-pleasing circular booth with its rare weapons in the theme of "Around the World in 80 Days" will be installed at the Marin show.

More than 100 firearms will be displayed, including a chain-driven revolver, a 20-shot repeater, a combination sword and revolver, a lady's pocketbook six-shooter, a target rifle with right shoulder rest and left eye sights and a combination shot-bludgeon.

DIMES BENEFIT BALL GAME IS WASHED OUT

March of Dimes benefit baseball game scheduled yesterday in San Rafael was washed down the drain—but undaunted promoters rescheduled it for next Sunday, again at Albert Field.

The game was to have matched a combination of past, present and future stars on the Marin County All-Stars against the Gino Beneditii club, a San Francisco semi-pro team. However, heavy rains around the 1:30 p.m. starting time forced the postponement.

Promoter Don Lauters of San Rafael and officials of the March of Dimes said all players promised to try again next Sunday at 1:30 p.m.

Marin Pontiacs Sweep Honors In Stockton Racing

DeBeaubien Pontiac racing team of Mill Valley swept all three divisions of the stock automatic classes yesterday in the Pacific Coast Fuel and Gas Championships at Stockton. All three racers also established new strip records in the process.

The drivers and their cars were Jules DeBaubien, Corte Madera, 1961 Catalina convertile, in the Super Stock Class; Rick Lynch, San Francisco, 1961 Pontiac Ventura, in the New Stock Automatic Class; and Joe Stagnaro, San Francisco, 1958 Pontiac Chieftain, in the A Stock Automatic Class.

Another member of the DeBeaubien team, Neil Anderson of San Rafael, tied a strip record Saturday for Economy Class in a 1961 Tempest, but loss of high gear forced his withdrawal from yesterday's competition.

'KUENN WILL MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE'

Feerless Scribe Favors Giants

By OSCAR FRALEY

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) —Working on the theory that if at first you can't be right, at least be among the first, Fearless Fraley today picks the San Francisco Giants and the Chicago White Sox to win the 1961 baseball pennants.

National League — 1. San Francisco Giants, 2. Milwaukee Braves, 3. Los Angeles Dodgers, 4. Pittsburgh Pirates, 5. St. Louis Cardinals, 6. Cincinnati Reds, 7. Chicago Cubs and 8, Philadelphia Phillies.

American League—1. Chicago White Sox, 2, Baltimore Orioles, 3. New York Yankees, 4. Cleveland Indians, 5. Minnesota Twins, 6, Detroit Tigers, 7. Boston Red Sox, 8. Kansas City A's 9. Los Angeles Angels and 10, Washington Senators.

Considering the National League first, the Giants get the call in this corner because Harvey Kuenn figures to make the infield jell instead of jelly; Bill O'Dell should get back on the track with Juan Marichal as a big surprise while Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda supply the power.

The Braves will be running at them as long as Spahn, Burdette and company have any arms left at all and probably the best infield in baseball puts them in the picture all the way despite Charlie Dressen's mournful whistling.

The Dodgers are packed with pitching, but Frank Howard can't make me forget the dulled or departed likes of Hodges, Furillo and Snider.

I didn't think the Pirates would win last year and this time I'm sure the clock will strike for the Cinderella club and they'll ride home in a pumpkin.

The Cardinals, off their strong finish last year, are talking pennant. But this is not the end of the year, only another distressing beginning. The Reds, as usual need pitching help and maybe milkman Jim Turner can help. But you have to look the long end of the binoculars to see how much.

The Cubs are still the Cubs. The Phils are saved from ninth or 10th because Houston and New York do not join the league until next year. You don't win without runs and the Phils can't get 'em.

The Chicago White Sox get the nod in what could be a a five-team race in the American League on the strength of their all-powerful pitching.

The Baltimore Orioles appear to have too many rookies who must make good as sophomores—a debateable chore, while the Yankees have more troubles than they have been accustomed to in many years. Their woes are centered on the hill and Casey Stengel's departure won't be as negligible as the owners try to make it appear.

Scribe Wrote More Fiction Than Fact On Debut Of Juan Marichal

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Philadelphians love literary allusions liberally sprinkled in their sports stories. And Philly's capable sports writers work hard to weave a Shakespearean reference into their stuff so Ivy League tastes will be satisfied.

Juan Marichal, the 1960 mound prodigy, sprung magically like an Ariel out of the Dominican Republic jungles, whistling every tune in the pitcher's book. That was the introduction last August of Marichal by a scholarly Philly reporter to his reading public. It was also the basis for a mystery piece on Marichal, good reading but better fiction than fact.

This was the way the Philly man reported on an interview with Juan:

"Where did you learn to pitch?"

"In the Army," said Juan.

"Oh? What rank were you?"

"No rank. Just play baseball in Army."

"You had a good coach then?"

"No coach. I always know how to pitch."

"Then, there must be ball players in your family. Your father, maybe . . ."

"No father. Two brothers. They can't play."

"Then baseball must be a big game in your town . . ."

"Only me. I teach myself."

THE PHILLY man summed it up saying Juan might become the next Christy Mathewson but not likely the next Demosthenes.

"There is no mystery," said Juan as someone presented the old clipping to him from a Philly paper. "My older brother, Gonzalo, was in semi-pro ranks. He first taught me to pitch. Before that I had been a shortstop.

"Then I learned more about pitching in the Dominican Air Force. And after signing with the Giants (for $500—his fellow Dominican Felipe Alou got only $200) Frank Shellenback helped me."

The 23-year-old right hander, whose Caribbean smile has all the built-in cheerfulness of a lighted Christmas tree, thinks he will have a better year this year than last season because he was plagued by sciatica during his sensational rookie debut.

BEFORE BEING forced to don a corset which he wore early in 1960 at Tacoma, Marichal won four straight. He finished 6-2, dazzling a display of control usually seen only when polished veterans are on the mound.

Is Juan worried about his control problem this spring? In his first two exhibition appearances he worked only four innings, allowing 11 runs, nine hits, four walks and hit two batters and threw two wild pitches.

"It will be all right, it will work out," said the poised young man who displayed no nervousness in any of his victories or losses last year.

"IF HE isn't worried, I'm not," said Manager Alvin Dark, who plans a starter's career this season for Marichal. "If it were April, I'd be concerned. But we're only halfway through training camp now."

Marichal will take the reputation of a pitching prodigy with him into the 1961 campaign. The big question is whether he can maintain its brilliant lustre or will the National League destroyers tarnish it as they did another flash, Von McDaniel?

Kirkland Proving Big Steal In Tribe's Deal With Giants

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Johnny Antonelli and Harvey Kuenn were the "big" men in last winter's deal between San Francisco and Cleveland, but from the looks of things, Willie Kirkland, the third man in the swap, may wind up as the best bargain since old Peter Minuit talked the Indians out of Manhattan.

If you ask the Giants how they feel about Kuenn, they'll tell you, especially Manager Al Dark, "He's all we expected and maybe more." The Indians feel the same way about the hard-throwing Antonelli, but when they get around to talking about Kirkland these days, superlatives dot the conversation. And you can't exactly blame them.

All Willie has done is win at least three games for them and keep them in the others with timely hits like the bases-loaded double that won yesterday's game with the Giants, 15-9. A couple of days ago, he unloaded a grand-slam homer against the Red Sox and earlier in the Cactus League, he beat the Giants with other big hits.

TRIBE OUTFIELD

As things stand now, Kirkland, a 27-year-old native of Siluria, Ala., who hit 43 home runs in two seasons with the Giants, will work in an outfield that includes Jimmy Piersall in center and Tito Francona in left.

Willie is no gazelle in the field, but he's no butcher either, so the Indians already are more than happy with the deal, and as Manager Jimmy Dykes says, "the big guy gives our outfield some class."

Cleveland's big inning was the fourth when the Indians, trailing 5-1, rattled the fences with a barrage of extra base hits to push eight runs across the plate. A two-run homer by catcher Johnny Romano and Kirkland's double were the big blows. Mike McCormick, ace of the San Francisco mound corps, was the loser and was touched for all eight runs in the fourth.

The Giants scored twice in their first time at bat on a walk to Felipe Alou and doubles by Kuenn and Willie McCovey. Three more runs came across in the third when Orlando Cepeda homered with a man on base and McCovey singled home Willie Mays, who had walked and advanced to second on a wild pitch.

The Indians picked up one run in their half of the third, exploded for the big eight in the fourth and added the coup de grace with a four-run outburst in the fifth. Cleveland got its last two runs in the seventh.

Sixto Off To Rome For Bout With Italian Who Whipped Archie Moore

Sixto Rodriguez, who wound up on Queer Street, U.S.A. in has last pugilistic adventure, was winging his way toward Rome today for what may prove to be the most important date of his career.

The San Anselmo tile setter, accompanied by his manager, Karl Ashley, also of the Hub City, will take on higly ranked light heavyweight contender Julio Rinaldi in the capital of Italy Friday night.

Rinaldi, you may remember, is the Italian mauler who outpointed champion Archie Moore last year in a non-title tiff. So impressive was his victory that the spaghetti bender is slated to get a shot at Moore's crown in June.

But, if he loses to the lanky San Anselman, that June date with Moore probably will be cancelled. As Ashley admitted, "I still can't figure out why he (Rinaldi) scheduled us."

Ashley is hopeful. He says anytime Sixto has a bad fight he follows it with a dandy performance. His last outing, you will recall, was a short-lived clash with Seattle heavyweight Kirk Barrow. Kid Sixto wasn't around at the finish.

As Ashley explains, "Sixto always has troubles with heavyweights. That's why I insisted our contract with Rinaldi be for 178 pounds. I think we'll do okay over there."

Ashley described Rinaldi as "a mauler, a Gene Fullmer type. And that's fine with us. Sixto does good against that type."

Actually, Rodriguez was scheduled to meet number one ranked Chic Calderwood of Scotland, but the bout was cancelled when Calderwood was clobbered by Von Clay of Philadelphia recently. Clay had Chic on the canvas three times en route to a decisive decision. Then Sixto was offered the Rome bout, which he happily snatched.

If Sixto upsets Rinaldi, Ashley said the next stop would be a rematch with Von Clay. In a previous bout in Philadelphia, Sixto appeared to easily outclass Clay, but those Philly-dilly officials somehow managed to call it a draw.

If Sixto can parlay wins over Rinaldi and Clay, Ashley figures, "then we'll be right up there in the rankings."

Celtics Jump Off To Lead In NBA Playoff Schedule

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Celts trimmed the weary Syracuse Nats 128-115 yesterday in a nationally-televised game in Boston to take a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven Eastern Division title series.

Syracuse had completed a three-game sweep of its best-of-five semi-finals against the Philadelphia Warriors Saturday night, winning 106-103.

Meanwhile, in the Western Division, the Los Angeles Lakers eliminated the Detroit Pistons in their best-of-five semi-finals yesterday. Los Angeles turned back Detroit 137-120. to take the series 3 games to 2.

The second game of the Celtics-Nats series will be played in Syracuse tomorrow night.

Player Coach For Giants' PCL Club

General Manager Rosy Ryan pointed out Werle should prove a valuable man in assisting Manager Red Davis with the development of the young pitchers on the Giant staff.

If you qualify as a careful driver, you can get a preferred risk policy on an easy payment basis. Ask us for details.

All-Ohio Finals Predicted In NCAA Cage Tourney

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Something's got to give in what appears to be an all-Ohio final of the NCAA basketball tournament between unbeaten Ohio State and Cincinnati, winner of 20 consecutive games.

But before these two cross-state powerhouses can get together, they'll have to get by the other semi-finalists, surprising St. Joseph's (Pa.) and Utah. The mighty Buckeyes, riding a 31-game winning streak, tangle with the Hawks from Philadelphia and the Bearcats run up against Utah in Friday night's semi-finals Kansas City, Mo. The winners then meet for the title on Saturday night.

LUCAS BRILLIANT

The defending champion Buckeyes, with a 26-0 record this season, got a brilliant performance from All-American Jerry Lucas Saturday night in defeating Kentucky, 87-74, for the Mideast Regional title. The 6-8 Lucas scored 33 points and grabbed 30 rebounds as he halted any chances of Adolph Rupp's Wildcats advancing toward their fifth NCAA title.

It was a complete about face from Ohio State's game of Friday night when Lucas hit only nine points and the Buckeyes pulled out a 56-55 victory over Louisville.

BEARCATS RALLY

Cincinnati, second-ranked nationally by the United Press International Board of Coaches behind Ohio State, swept over Kansas State, 69-64, to gain the midwest final. The Bearcats had to overcome a seven-point deficit early in the second half to overcome the Big Eight champions.

Six players hit double figures for a spirited St. Joe's Club which took a 20-point advantage and then held off a Wake Forest rally to win the Eastern final, 96-86. The Hawks were outrebounded by the taller Deacons, but were more deadly from the field. Billy Hoy and Frank Majewski topped the winners with 20 and 19 points, respectively.

McGILL HIGH

Bill (The Hill) McGill clicked for 31 points in pacing Utah's Redskins over Arizona State, 88-80, for the Far West final. It marked the first time Utah gained the semi-finals since they won the title in 1944.

McGill scored on a three-pointer during the last six minutes to stymie the Sun Devils' late bid after they trailed by 22 points at halftime.

Hurdler Webster Paces Novato Spikers To Win

Hurdler Ron Webster went over the high and low barriers in first place style Friday to lead Novato High School's track and field team to victory over Benicia and St. Vincent's of Petaluma.

Although he fell during the 120-yard high hurdles, Webster got up and won at 18.3 seconds. He won the 180 low timber in 22.3.

Final varsity scores were Novato 67, Benicia 36½ and St. Vincent's 33½.

Craig Bond won the 70 high hurdles and broad jump to pace Novato's B team to victory.

Net Title For Mimi

MENTON, France (AP) — Mimi Arnold of Redwood City, Calif. won the women's singles of the Menton International Tennis Tournament yesterday, defeating Britain's Elizabeth Starkie 5-7, 6-4, 6-0 in the finals.

Tars Blanked Twice, Collect Only 5 Hits

After being held scoreless with only five hits in 16 innings Saturday at Sacramento, the College of Marin Tars were put on a strict diet of batting practice this week by Coach Ed Grimm.

Marin picked up only two hits in dropping a nine-inning 6-0 loss to American River in the opener of their Golden Valley Conference double-header Saturday and showed little improvement in the seven-inning nightcap, collecting only three singles in a 9-0 setback.

Marin hosts Sierra College Saturday at Kentfield in another GVC twin-bill, and Grimm sighed, "I sure hope our hitters find the mark."

SPOILS NO-HITTER

Ernie Bray broke up a no-hitter in the eighth inning of the opener Saturday with a single and Ed Vigno's ninth inning single was Marin's only other hit. Mike Woods was the losing pitcher.

Sixto Off To Rome For Bout With Italian Who Whipped Archie Moore

Sixto Rodriguez, who wound up on Queer Street, U.S.A. in has last pugilistic adventure, was winging his way toward Rome today for what may prove to be the most important date of his career.

Six players hit double figures for a spirited St. Joe's Club which took a 20-point advantage and then held off a Wake Forest rally to win the Eastern final, 96-86. The Hawks were outrebounded by the taller Deacons, but were more deadly from the field. Billy Hoy and Frank Majewski topped the winners with 20 and 19 points, respectively.

McGILL HIGH

Bill (The Hill) McGill clicked for 31 points in pacing Utah's Redskins over Arizona State, 88-80, for the Far West final. It marked the first time Utah gained the semi-finals since they won the title in 1944.

McGill scored on a three-pointer during the last six minutes to stymie the Sun Devils' late bid after they trailed by 22 points at halftime.

Hurdler Webster Paces Novato Spikers To Win

Hurdler Ron Webster went over the high and low barriers in first place style Friday to lead Novato High School's track and field team to victory over Benicia and St. Vincent's of Petaluma.

Although he fell during the 120-yard high hurdles, Webster got up and won at 18.3 seconds. He won the 180 low timber in 22.3.

Tars Blanked Twice, Collect Only 5 Hits

After being held scoreless with only five hits in 16 innings Saturday at Sacramento, the College of Marin Tars were put on a strict diet of batting practice this week by Coach Ed Grimm.

Marin picked up only two hits in dropping a nine-inning 6-0 loss to American River in the opener of their Golden Valley Conference double-header Saturday and showed little improvement in the seven-inning nightcap, collecting only three singles in a 9-0 setback.

Marin hosts Sierra College Saturday at Kentfield in another GVC twin-bill, and Grimm sighed, "I sure hope our hitters find the mark."

SPOILS NO-HITTER

Ernie Bray broke up a no-hitter in the eighth inning of the opener Saturday with a single and Ed Vigno's ninth inning single was Marin's only other hit. Mike Woods was the losing pitcher.

In the nightcap Ron Blum, the losing pitcher, collected two hits in three at-bats and Jack LaHargoue collected the only other hit for Marin.

HITS AT GOMULKA

Polish Cardinal Defies Red Rule

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—Hurling defiance at the Polish Communist regime, Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski pledged yesterday that the Roman Catholic Church will not bend to the Red "Caesars" in the mounting church-state struggle.

"I tell you Caesars that you will bow to your God and you will serve only him and no one else," the Polish primate declared. "Satan is mighty but man will not bow his head before him."

The cardinal's voice boomed through the high-vaulted Church of the Visitation as he declared that state-sponsored youth groups characterized by "atheization, laicization, indifferentism, rationalism, etc." show the Communist rulers are persecuting the church.

"It is so easily said that there is no struggle against religion," Cardinal Wyszynski said. "And what is this? What can one call this?"

Wladyslaw Gomulka, Poland's Communist Party chief, had charged Saturday that the Vatican is trying to provoke "persecution and martyrdom" in Poland and is sacrificing the Polish hierarchy in its fight against communism. Gomulka denied any persecution of the church.

The cardinal said that instead of anti-Communist directives, the Vatican's constant instruction was that "Poland acts on its own."

Cardinal Wyszynski said that during his conversations with Pope John XXIII, the late Pope Pius XII and other church leaders in Rome "not once has an attempt been made to give me any instructions whatsoever on how the Polish bishops should conduct church affairs in Poland."

6 Americans Released To U.N. In Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Six members of American missionary families have been released to United Nations forces sent to the chaotic Kivu Province to drive out fanatic "leopard men" who have threatened to kill all whites, the U.N. command announced today.

The Americans leaving are members of the World Grace Testimony of Chicago. They had been prevented by the Kivu government from leaving the area plagued by terrorist attacks.

The U.N. said that in addition to the Americans, six Belgians and a Dutchman also are being flown out.

The Americans leaving are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Vinton of Lynwood (Los Angeles County), their eight-month-old son, Frederick Jr., and Mrs. Carl Anderson of Chicago and her twin daughters, Elaine and Sally.

SPEAKER HITS KIDS WHO QUIT SCHOOL

WASHINGTON (UPI)—"The most disgruntled, disillusioned and unsatisfactory group of workers in America." That is the label a National Education Assn. official today pinned on high school dropouts.

Sam M. Lambert, NEA research director, told a national conference of Parents and Teachers Assn. leaders and school board officials from 33 states in a prepared speech that these youths amount to an indictment of U.S. Schools.

He said many of the nearly one million boys and girls 16 and 17 years old who should be in school, but aren't, form the nucleus of gangs and are habitues of the juvenile courts.

"It would be cheaper to educate these boys and girls, rather than to pay the . . . almost impossible burden on the resources of relief and welfare organizations, the unemployment agencies — and the juvenile courts," he said.

Slaughter Of Entire Angola Town Reported

LISBON, Portugal (UPI)—African marauders slaughtered a whole town of women and children in northern Angola when the men left to battle guerrilla bands, according to reports reaching here today.

The reports said the butchery occurred in Madimba, 420 miles north of the Portuguese African colonial capital of Luanda.

Best estimates today were that at least 70 persons—mostly women and children—had been slain so far in widespread terrorism which began last Wednesday in Northern Angola, but the government could provide no firm figure.

The Red Cross estimated that at least 1,000 children and 300 adults had been flown to safety in Luanda.

Reports reaching Lisbon said the raids apparently were planned by experienced guerilla leaders who armed their bands with machetes to attack weak points and firearms to attack better defended communities.

The men of Madimba were reported to have left their women and children hidden while they went north toward Sao Salvador to fight. The guerrilla bands apparently circled in behind them and wiped out everyone remaining in town.

Official Portuguese dispatches have said the guerrillas are operating from the neighboring Congo and have "foreign" backing.

Mrs. Samuel Archibald, Music Chest president for the 1961-62 season, will preside over the business meeting, which will be followed by a musical program given by Mary Larson, pianist, one of the recipients of last year's Music Chest Scholarship awards.

Tea will be served following the program. Hostesses for the affair are Mrs. Livermore, Mrs. Middleton and Mrs. Archibald. All chairmen and workers are urged to attend the tea, as matters of importance pertaining to the drive and concert season are to be discussed. Reservations should be made through Mrs. Hugh Middleton.

In the past six years the Arkansas Penitentiary System has raised and sold more than $6 million worth of rice and cotton.

High Twelvettes Meet Wednesday

The High Twelvettes of Marin will meet for luncheon at 1 p.m., Wednesday, at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera. The guest speaker will be a member of the staff of Guide Dogs for the Blind. The new film on selecting and training dogs will be shown.

The next business meeting will be held at noon, Wednesday, April 12 at the home of Mrs. Frank Cox in Greenbrae. Mrs. Lee Rockwood will be cohostess.

Child Health Meet

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Child Health Conference will be held Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at the Redwoods Presbyterian Church, Magnolia and Alexander Avenues, Larkspur. Dr. Marilyn Hicks, attending physician, will be assisted by Mrs. Helen Engh, public health nurse, and volunteers from Larkspur and Corte Madera P-TAs. Appointments may be made by phoning Mrs. Richard Glassman, Larkspur.

During the Great Blizzard of 1888, messages from New York to Boston had to be relayed by way of England.

Milk Bank Meeting Tomorrow

The Marin Committee of Mothers' Milk Bank, Inc. meets tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the San Rafael home of Mrs. David Hudson.

Chairman of the committee, Mrs. George Error, announced that the Marin Committee was to receive a special commendation from the milk bank. During the month of February there were nine contributing mothers who donated milk to the bank, and five of these were Marin residents. She reported that 4,539 ounces of milk have been donated by Marin nursing mothers during the two years that the committee has been working.

The milk bank was established by the Baby Hygiene Committee of the American Association of University Women, San Francisco Branch. The mother's milk collected is distributed without charge on doctor's order to premature and sick infants. Healthy, nursing mothers who donate their surplus milk are paid.

The Marin Committee has organized a motor corps in order to transport the milk thriceweekly from the home of the donor to Mill Valley from where it is sent to San Francisco for processing.

Anyone who would like to become a donating mother, a member of the committee, or a volunteer driver should contact Mrs. Error in San Rafael.

Marin Women

Little League Moms Will Meet Wednesday

A meeting for all San Anselmo Little League mothers will be held on Wednesday March 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the multipurpose room of the Isabel Cook School.

This will be the only business meeting for the Ladies Auxiliary for the 1961 season. Plans for the "Batter-up" dance to be held on April 29 at the Star Hall will be discussed.

Coffee and refreshments will be served.

Valley Sewing Club Is Meeting On March 22

The Valley Sewing Club, an affiliate of Mill Valley's Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305, will hold its monthly business meeting Wednesday, March 22, at 2 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Temple.

A potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m. will precede the meeting.

EGG HUNT TICKETS AVAILABLE

Tickets will be available at the entrance gate to the Pixie Parents-sponsored Easter Egg Hunt and Fair, it has been announced by Mrs. Charles Bodington, president.

The event is scheduled from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon on Wednesday and Thursday mornings, March 22 and 23, at the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Each child who will hunt eggs will need a ticket.

Many colorful events have been scheduled for the pre-first graders.

Mrs. William Roberts, president, has appointed to assist her with the luncheon Mesdames James O. Anderson and Clifford Spinney.

Nursing Director To Be Hostess

Mrs. Patricia Leonard, director of nursing at San Rafael General Hospital, will be hostess to a group of 15 at a meeting Wednesday afternoon, March 22, at her home in Novato. Her guests will be other directors of nursing and assistant directors from hospitals in Berkeley, Richmond, Livermore, Martinez, Vallejo, Napa and Sonoma. Several public health nurses from these localities also will be present.

The group is the regional segment of a seminar in nursing leadership which Mrs. Leonard and the others are attending under sponsorship of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education. The next general meeting of the seminar will be June 5 to 9 at the University of California Center at Lake Tahoe.

Gentryettes Show The Spring Fashions For Wear At Beach

Sun, sand, surf or shore—for the swim world of fashion the shapes the thing for spring (summer and fall, too) as was most definitely shown by designer Rose Marie Reid at a recent all swim-suit Informally Yours fashion-luncheon at Bob's of Marin.

"Swim Shapes by the Ounce," the special showing of the beach wear, featured suits of all shape and no weight in a glorious parade of color with the accent on youth—young styled suits for all ages modeled by teen-agers from Sir Francis Drake High, the Gentryettes, who sponsored the benefit affair to aid Marin YMCA.

In the fashion parade of suits for lake, lagoon—patio, pool—sun and sea, were members of the sponsoring group, the Misses Judy Mulder (chairman of the affair) Teri Merrit, Alison Geisea, Margli Cook, Paula Schutzmann, Mary Serio, Marty Olson; also Mrs. William Donohoe, and Mrs. Richard Evans, who all modeled fashionable beach attire for an appreciative audience in a garden setting with the outdoor swimming pool in the background at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

March 29 is the date for the Marin Volunteers for Senior Citizens to be welcomed at Bob's of Marin for fashions Informally Yours with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Reservations for the Wednesday, March 29 benefit, to which the public is invited, may be made with Bob's of Marin.

Spring Bonnet Party For Marin Whirl-Aways

Spring blossoms in profusion, as well as chapeaux of all varieties worn by many of the dancers, will predominate the scene at the "Spring Bonnet Dance Party," to be given on Wednesday, at the Carpenters' Hall, 647 Lindaro Street, San Rafael, by the Marin Whirl-Aways, folk and square dance group.

Co-hosting this prelude to the spring and Easter season party are Helen Buckle and George Ennis, with Lois and Eric Tainter, who with club members invite all to attend.

The program of folk-dancing and American squares, m.c.'d by Joe Angeli, will commence at 8:15 p.m.

Rainbow Club Lunch

Rainbow Sewing Club, which is composed of members of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 will give a hot dish luncheon with salad and dessert on Friday, March 24 at the IOOF Temple in San Rafael. Service will be from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The public is invited. Mrs. James Rowe, president, is chairman. She will be assisted by Mesdames Kenneth Irwin, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Blake, secretary and Frank Nickerson, treasurer, and other members.

meeting in April, as a fashion show will be held instead, with models from the club showing the latest in spring clothing provided by a local dress shop.

Smith College Alum President Will Be Honored In Marin Friday

Mrs. Richmond, who is currently on tour visiting Smith Clubs in the Far West, was elected in June 1959 to serve a three-year term ending in 1962. As president she presides over the largest group of alumnae of any of the independent women's colleges, numbering over 30,000 in every state and more than 74 foreign countries.

The Marin County Smith Club will entertain their national president at a luncheon-meeting at Tiburon Tommie's at 1 p.m. During the meeting, Mrs. Richmond is expected to report to the local members on recent college and alumnae activities. She will also take this opportunity to renew old friendships and become acquainted with other Marin alumnae of Smith.

Later in the afternoon, officers of the club will have a reception at the home of Mrs. Richard Allen in Kent Woodlands honoring Mrs. Richmond and Marin high school counselors. Girls who have applied for admission to Smith or who might be interested in learning more about the Eastern college have also been invited to this gathering.

Assisting with preparations for the alumnae president's visit are Mrs. John Clow, acting president of the local Smith Club, Mrs. Arnold Brown, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. Richard Allen and Miss Janet Allen. Any prospective students interested in meeting Mrs. Richmond to discuss Smith with her are asked to call Mrs. C. D. Simpson.

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Elect Officers, Delegates

Marin Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae elected officers at a recent March workshop meeting in the Mill Valley home of Mrs. Joseph Sheeks, and following the meeting constructed candle boards, counting and color boards for use at Marindale School for handicapped children.

Mrs. Dale F. Norton, Panhellenic representative, and Mrs. Riedel will serve as delegates to the Alpha Chi Omega Province-District meeting at the Claremont Hotel on March 25. At this meeting they will join with representatives from active and alumnae chapters from Northern California, Oregon and Nevada in workshops for discussion of leadership training for officers, finances, pledge guidance, chapter scholarship, alumnae altruistic work and alumnae aid to collegiate chapters.

Province-district meetings are held throughout the United States in years between national conventions.

Marin delegates will display the button, zipper, lacing and buckle boards made earlier this year, as well as the recently completed self-help toys used at Marindale.

These projects are all part of Alpha Chi's efforts in support of their national philanthropy—aid to the celebral palsied, and in many instances are constructed according to instructions found in Alpha Chi's book of self-help toy patterns.

The day-long program will include a luncheon speaker from the national council and election of a new district alumnae chairman.

Among those attending from Marin will be Mesdames Keith Roberts, Fred Tegeler, A. E. Warrens, and Walter Bauer.

San Anselmo Club Will See Slides

The regular monthly meeting of the San Anselmo Women's Club, presided over by Mrs. John Carr, president, will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Edwin Christy, 17 Lincoln Way, San Anselmo.

Following the program, refreshments will be served by hostesses for the day, Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Henry Shine.

Sun, sand, surf or shore—for the swim world of fashion the shapes the thing for spring (summer and fall, too) as was most definitely shown by designer Rose Marie Reid at a recent all swim-suit Informally Yours fashion-luncheon at Bob's of Marin.

"Swim Shapes by the Ounce," the special showing of the beach wear, featured suits of all shape and no weight in a glorious parade of color with the accent on youth—young styled suits for all ages modeled by teen-agers from Sir Francis Drake High, the Gentryettes, who sponsored the benefit affair to aid Marin YMCA.

In the fashion parade of suits for lake, lagoon—patio, pool—sun and sea, were members of the sponsoring group, the Misses Judy Mulder (chairman of the affair) Teri Merrit, Alison Geisea, Margli Cook, Paula Schutzmann, Mary Serio, Marty Olson; also Mrs. William Donohoe, and Mrs. Richard Evans, who all modeled fashionable beach attire for an appreciative audience in a garden setting with the outdoor swimming pool in the background at Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera.

"Collette"—very little weight but all shape. Teri Merrit appeared in the skirtless maillot style suit.

March 29 is the date for the Marin Volunteers for Senior Citizens to be welcomed at Bob's of Marin for fashions Informally Yours with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Reservations for the Wednesday, March 29 benefit, to which the public is invited, may be made with Bob's of Marin.

Smith College Alum President Will Be Honored In Marin Friday

Mrs. Richmond, who is currently on tour visiting Smith Clubs in the Far West, was elected in June 1959 to serve a three-year term ending in 1962. As president she presides over the largest group of alumnae of any of the independent women's colleges, numbering over 30,000 in every state and more than 74 foreign countries.

The Marin County Smith Club will entertain their national president at a luncheon-meeting at Tiburon Tommie's at 1 p.m. During the meeting, Mrs. Richmond is expected to report to the local members on recent college and alumnae activities. She will also take this opportunity to renew old friendships and become acquainted with other Marin alumnae of Smith.

Later in the afternoon, officers of the club will have a reception at the home of Mrs. Richard Allen in Kent Woodlands honoring Mrs. Richmond and Marin high school counselors. Girls who have applied for admission to Smith or who might be interested in learning more about the Eastern college have also been invited to this gathering.

Assisting with preparations for the alumnae president's visit are Mrs. John Clow, acting president of the local Smith Club, Mrs. Arnold Brown, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Mrs. Richard Allen and Miss Janet Allen. Any prospective students interested in meeting Mrs. Richmond to discuss Smith with her are asked to call Mrs. C. D. Simpson.

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Elect Officers, Delegates

Marin Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae elected officers at a recent March workshop meeting in the Mill Valley home of Mrs. Joseph Sheeks, and following the meeting constructed candle boards, counting and color boards for use at Marindale School for handicapped children.

Mrs. Dale F. Norton, Panhellenic representative, and Mrs. Riedel will serve as delegates to the Alpha Chi Omega Province-District meeting at the Claremont Hotel on March 25. At this meeting they will join with representatives from active and alumnae chapters from Northern California, Oregon and Nevada in workshops for discussion of leadership training for officers, finances, pledge guidance, chapter scholarship, alumnae altruistic work and alumnae aid to collegiate chapters.

Province-district meetings are held throughout the United States in years between national conventions.

Marin delegates will display the button, zipper, lacing and buckle boards made earlier this year, as well as the recently completed self-help toys used at Marindale.

These projects are all part of Alpha Chi's efforts in support of their national philanthropy—aid to the celebral palsied, and in many instances are constructed according to instructions found in Alpha Chi's book of self-help toy patterns.

The day-long program will include a luncheon speaker from the national council and election of a new district alumnae chairman.

Among those attending from Marin will be Mesdames Keith Roberts, Fred Tegeler, A. E. Warrens, and Walter Bauer.

Spring Bonnet Party For Marin Whirl-Aways

Spring blossoms in profusion, as well as chapeaux of all varieties worn by many of the dancers, will predominate the scene at the "Spring Bonnet Dance Party," to be given on Wednesday, at the Carpenters' Hall, 647 Lindaro Street, San Rafael, by the Marin Whirl-Aways, folk and square dance group.

Co-hosting this prelude to the spring and Easter season party are Helen Buckle and George Ennis, with Lois and Eric Tainter, who with club members invite all to attend.

The program of folk-dancing and American squares, m.c.'d by Joe Angeli, will commence at 8:15 p.m.

Rainbow Club Lunch

Rainbow Sewing Club, which is composed of members of Golden Star Rebekah Lodge 112 will give a hot dish luncheon with salad and dessert on Friday, March 24 at the IOOF Temple in San Rafael. Service will be from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The public is invited. Mrs. James Rowe, president, is chairman. She will be assisted by Mesdames Kenneth Irwin, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Blake, secretary and Frank Nickerson, treasurer, and other members.

San Anselmo Club Will See Slides

The regular monthly meeting of the San Anselmo Women's Club, presided over by Mrs. John Carr, president, will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Edwin Christy, 17 Lincoln Way, San Anselmo.

A program featuring colored slides of France and Japan will be shown by Mrs. William Mann.

Following the program, refreshments will be served by hostesses for the day, Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Henry Shine.

There will be no business meeting in April, as a fashion show will be held instead, with models from the club showing the latest in spring clothing provided by a local dress shop.

District CCPT Plans A Birthday Party

The 14th District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers will celebrate a quarter of a century of service Thursday at Villa Chanticleer on top of Fitch Mountain near Healdsburg. Registration starts at 9:30 a.m.

Feature of the district's 25th birthday party will be a symposium on child mental health. Speakers will be Jack R. Danielson, guidance consultant for Tamalpais Union High School District; William Mulligan, assistant Sonoma County probation officer, and Ray Patrick, child welfare officer in the Sonoma Welfare Department.

Newly elected district officers will be installed by outgoing President Mrs. Malcolm Finley of San Rafael. Reports will be presented by all seven councils of the two-county district.

Displays of P-TA work will feature the health department and the communications department, including radio, TV, motion pictures and publicity.

Clarence E. Spencer, audio-visual director for Marin County schools, and John D. King, principal of Lucas Valley School and audio-visual director for the district, will show a film and discuss film use in schools and at teacher and parent meetings.

Among special guests are to be two county school superintendents, Dr. DeForrest Hamilton of Sonoma and Dr. Virgil Hollis of Marin. Byron Gibbs, superintendent of Healdsburg Elementary School District, will act as host for the day.

Mrs. Kenneth Caven, district program director, and Mrs. Robert Sones, mental health chairman, are making arrangements with the aid of all Healdsburg P-TA units. Mrs. Leo Buchignani, district homemaking chairman, will officiate as hostess, with assistants Mesdames E. C. Peacock, M. Holden, David Harmeson and John Kately, all of Healdsburg.

A band, composed of 57 boys and girls of fifth, sixth and seventh grades at Fitch Mountain and Healdsburg elementary schools, will play under the direction of George Izzet, director of instrumental music at the two schools.

District officials are also planning a district-wide workshop in Santa Rosa's First Presbyterian Church on May 18.

PATRICIA ELIZABETH SLAYTON
(Ashworth of London)

Patricia Slayton Engaged To Steve Dedina, San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell D. Slayton of San Rafael are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Elizabeth, to Steven J. Dedina III, of San Francisco. The surprise announcement was made recently to guests invited to celebrate the Slaytons' 29th wedding anniversary.

Patricia is a senior music-education major at Dominican College where she is student president of the Music Department, a member of the Madrigal Singers, Schola Cantorum and is preparing for her senior piano recital in April. She holds a state office in the Student-California Teachers Association, and is a member of their state executive council and professional standards board. A graduate of San Rafael High School and a Past Honored Queen of Bethel No. 48 Job's Daughters, Patty served as Grand Bethel Musician for the Grand Bethel of the State of California in 1959.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Bone of Santa Rosa and the late Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Slayton, and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bone of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Davidson of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Child of Paramount and the late Alton D. Slayton.

Steven is the son of Mrs. H. N. Salyer of San Francisco. Professor S. J. Dedina II, Steve's father, resides in Europe.

The prospective bridegroom, is a 1959 graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, is a student at the University of San Francisco School of Law, where he is studying for the L.L.B. degree. While on the Berkeley campus, he was president of his fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and for four consecutive semesters won the TKE Scholarship Cup for highest academic achievement. He was a member of the Inter-Fraternity Council, Council of Living Group Presidents, Megaphone Society, Young Republicans and was campus campaign manager for two years.

Plans are being made for a late January wedding.

Family Service League Greets 30 New Members At Luncheon

New members from Belvedere included the Mesdames John T. Raisin Jr., T. A. Stolte, Thomas Dorst, Charles W. Knapp, and E. H. Sinclair.

From Mill Valley were Mesdames Gordon Harrington, Russell Mills, W. J. Gannon, A. L. Bjorklund Jr., Kenyon Spalding, W. L. Maxwell Jr., Lee M. Spangler, H. F. Wagner, Kleve Johnson and Albert Seidel.

The Ross Valley unit, which includes members from Corte Madera, Larkspur, Kentfield, Ross, San Anselmo and San Rafael, sponsored Mesdames John E. Koster, G. W. Johnson, F. B. Ketchum Jr., Charles W. Kopf, E. S. Albritton, F. D. Stribling, John Dakin, David Nelson, Herbert Magnuson, D. R. Wellington, E. B. Spiller, Richard C. Salladin and Jaqueline Campbell.

From Sausalito came Mrs. E. A. Wedell, and a visitor from New York City, Mrs. Louis A. Adam, attended with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Britt of Strawberry.

League chairman, Mrs. Theodore Olsen, introduced the special projects chairmen in order to acquaint the new volunteers with the opportunities for service open to members.

Mrs. Frederic Parke, manager of the Children's Cottage, in Mill Valley at 21 Madrona, reported that this newest league project is operating in the black and steadily growing. She stressed the need for regular donations of outgrown clothing and equipment to keep the shop stocked.

Mrs. Bruce Manheim announced the plans for the June 2 dinner dance to be held at the Peacock Gap Country Club for members and friends, as a "party for pleasure" to reward the hardworking volunteers of the league.

Mrs. Blyth Adams, as chairman of the All Star Show next fall, supplemented what KPIX "Dance Time" star Dick Stewart and program director Ray Hubbard had told the group earlier about bringing top CBS television stars from Hollywood and prominent recording stars to Marin for a gala show, aimed at the whole family, but of special interest to teenagers.

Mrs. Victor Banks was introduced as the chairman of the Christmas Gift Gallery held in November at the Marin Art and Garden Center, as a display of interesting gift items from local shops which can be ordered for holiday giving.

The efforts of the Family Service League are directed toward helping The Family Service Agency of Marin maintain its high standard of professional family counseling to all Marin residents who have need of help with their problems, and prepare for its needed expansion.

Marin Branch AAUW Honors Two Members With Awards

At a luncheon meeting today of Marin Branch, AAUW, announcement was made that two of its members have been honored in having the Branch's 1961 Fellowships Awards named for them, Mrs. E. Dewart Lewis of Kentfield and Mrs. E. B. Gearhart of San Rafael are the honorees.

Of the funds made available by the Branch's three February fund raising events, $500 will be used in the name of Mrs. Lewis for International Fellowships and $500 in the name of Mrs. Gearhart for National Fellowships.

The fellowships are open to women of the U.S. and foreign countries who either have their Ph.D. degree or who will have fulfilled all requirements for this degree except the dissertation, and to women who have achieved professional recognition. The grants are unrestricted as to field and place of study except that International fellowships must be used in a country other than the candidate's own.

Mrs. Lewis, a graduate of the University of British Columbia, served as Branch president from 1934 to 1937, finishing the unexpired term of another president and then serving her own two years. During her term of office Marin Branch accomplished many things within its own organization and for Marin County. Among others was the sponsorship of the Marin Motion Picture Council and of a series of lectures under the Adult Education Program. The Branch's traditional June Discovery Dinner was also begun at this time.

Mrs. Gearhart, who is now librarian at San Rafael High School, is a graduate of the University of California. She served as Branch president in 1951-53. Besides her work with several county youth groups, she was chairman of the International Relations section and state chairman of the nominating committee.

Today's luncheon was a panel discussion sponsored by the Arts sections and moderated by Mrs. Thomas L. Rogers. Panelists were Mesdames Lothar Salin, Joseph Albanese, Byron Leydecker, Robert Milmoe, and Hugh Harnsberger.

Delta Zeta Meet At Tiburon Tommies

The Marin County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will meet in Southern Marin for the first time this year tomorrow at Tiburon Tommie's Pier 41.

The only business scheduled for the 12:30 lunch and social meeting is the report of the nominating committee which will be presented by past president Mrs. James A. Smith. Officers will be elected at the April meeting according to Mrs. Robert A. Tanem, president.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Pinched fingers are no danger with a new bridge table that has an almost-automatic leg machanism. The legs lock into position when they're vertical and require only a gentle tug to fold them back under the table.

Panel Program To Highlight San Rafael High P-TA Meet

The members of the San Rafael High School P-TA are anticipating a lively discussion period at their meeting tomorrow evening, at the high school cafeteria, at 7:45 p.m.

"How can the home, the school and the community help to overcome some of the conflicts and misunderstandings that contribute to emotional and mental illeness?", is the question to be presented to the panel for discussion.

Mrs. Richard Gladstein, P-TA president, will introduce the speakers. Chaplain (Major) Charles C. Sturdy, the father of three children, will present the parents' point of view. Chaplain Sturdy served in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater of Operations during World War II and was recalled in 1951 for the Korean Incident. His latest assignment before Hamilton was as Base Chaplain at Goose Bay, Labrador. The attitudes of the community will be presented by Gerald G. Jampolsky M. D., psychiatrist, who has been working extensively with young people. Four students of San Rafael High School will represent the high school student body.

Mrs. Rodney V. Wagner, chairman of the nominating committee, will report at this meeting and election and installation of officers for the ensuing year will be held. Mrs. Sidney Diehl, president of San Rafael Council P-TA, will conduct the installation ceremonies.

Small Charms

The latest fashions in miniature charms do the most amazing things. A report from London tells of solid gold miniatures of television sets, radios and cigarette boxes — all of them designed to play music. The radio and cigarette box tune up when the lid is opened; the TV set switches on with the turn of a knob. Another kimmick is the gold "toaster" charm. Gold toast pops up from a tiny box after it has been set by a knob.

Marin Branch AAUW Honors Two Members With Awards

At a luncheon meeting today of Marin Branch, AAUW, announcement was made that two of its members have been honored in having the Branch's 1961 Fellowships Awards named for them. Mrs. E. Dewart Lewis of Kentfield and Mrs. E. B. Gearhart of San Rafael are the honorees.

Of the funds made available by the Branch's three February fund raising events, $500 will be used in the name of Mrs. Lewis for International Fellowships and $500 in the name of Mrs. Gearhart for National Fellowships.

The fellowships are open to women of the U.S. and foreign countries who either have their Ph.D. degree or who will have fulfilled all requirements for this degree except the dissertation, and to women who have achieved professional recognition. The grants are unrestricted as to field and place of study except that International fellowships must be used in a country other than the candidate's own.

Mrs. Lewis, a graduate of the University of British Columbia, served as Branch president from 1934 to 1937, finishing the unexpired term of another president and then serving her own two years. During her term of office Marin Branch accomplished many things within its own organization and for Marin County. Among others was the sponsorship of the Marin Motion Picture Council and of a series of lectures under the Adult Education Program. The Branch's traditional June Discovery Dinner was also begun at this time.

Mrs. Gearhart, who is now librarian at San Rafael High School, is a graduate of the University of California. She served as Branch president in 1951-53. Besides her work with several county youth groups, she was chairman of the International Relations section and state chairman of the nominating committee.

Today's luncheon was a panel discussion sponsored by the Arts sections and moderated by Mrs. Thomas L. Rogers. Panelists were Mesdames Lothar Salin, Joseph Albanese, Byron Leydecker, Robert Milmoe, and Hugh Harnsberger.

Delta Zeta Meet At Tiburon Tommies

The Marin County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will meet in Southern Marin for the first time this year tomorrow at Tiburon Tommie's Pier 41.

The only business scheduled for the 12:30 lunch and social meeting is the report of the nominating committee which will be presented by past president Mrs. James A. Smith. Officers will be elected at the April meeting according to Mrs. Robert A. Tanem, president.

PATRICIA ELIZABETH SLAYTON

Patricia Slayton Engaged To Steve Dedina, San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell D. Slayton of San Rafael are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Elizabeth, to Steven J. Dedina III, of San Francisco. The surprise announcement was made recently to guests invited to celebrate the Slaytons' 29th wedding anniversary.

Patricia is a senior music-education major at Dominican College where she is student president of the Music Department, a member of the Madrigal Singers, Schola Cantorum and is preparing for her senior piano recital in April. She holds a state office in the Student-California Teachers Association, and is a member of their state executive council and professional standards board. A graduate of San Rafael High School and a Past Honored Queen of Bethel No. 48 Job's Daughters, Patty served as Grand Bethel Musician for the Grand Bethel of the State of California in 1959.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Bone of Santa Rosa and the late Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Slayton, and the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bone of San Jose, Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Davidson of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Child of Paramount and the late Alton D. Slayton.

Steven is the son of Mrs. H. N. Salyer of San Francisco. Professor S. J. Dedina II, Steve's father, resides in Europe.

The prospective bridegroom, is a 1959 graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, is a student at the University of San Francisco School of Law, where he is studying for the L.L.B. degree. While on the Berkeley campus, he was president of his fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and for four consecutive semesters won the TKE Scholarship Cup for highest academic achievement. He was a member of the Inter-Fraternity Council, Council of Living Group Presidents, Megaphone Society, Young Republicans and was campus campaign manager for two years.

Plans are being made for a late January wedding.

Electrical First

NEW YORK (UPI) — A cooking and baking table, the forerunner of the electric range, was placed on the market in 1905. It was made of wood and furnished with separate cooking utensils that were plugged into electrical outlets. It resembled a switchboard.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counselor

Love, Guidance, Freedom Create Strong Character In Your Child

Want your child to be honest, dependable, kindly? The question is how to teach good traits. Character isn't inherited, it's learned.

I've been going over the research studies in character development. The findings are remarkably consistent. If your youngster is to acquire good character traits you'll have to give him three things: love, guidance, and freedom.

Love starts the process. Love begins even before your baby's birth. You should want him, and feel happy about his coming. During his first year of life you should be his slave, doing your best to keep him comfy and contented. He needs to learn that in your care he is safe, wanted, and important. Your love must be unchanging. You can't turn it on and off. Love gives your child lifelong emotional security.

Guidance comes next. You need to teach him what's right, and what's wrong. You need to set limits, so he knows what he can and cannot do. Sometimes you'll have to punish. Always use the mildest punishment that will teach the needed lesson. Reserve corporal punishment for his few most dangerous offenses. Don't laugh at a stunt one day, and swat him for it the next.

Freedom should start early. As your child grows up he needs to make decisions for himself. Loosen the apron strings as fast as you can safely. At each stage let him decide as many things for himself as possible. This is not easy because it is more fun for you when you make the decisions for him. But he needs the chance. By his late teens he should be independent.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counselor

Love, Guidance, Freedom Create Strong Character In Your Child

Want your child to be honest, dependable, kindly? The question is how to teach good traits. Character isn't inherited, it's learned.

I've been going over the research studies in character development. The findings are remarkably consistent. If your youngster is to acquire good character traits you'll have to give him three things: love, guidance, and freedom.

Love starts the process. Love begins even before your baby's birth. You should want him, and feel happy about his coming. During his first year of life you should be his slave, doing your best to keep him comfy and contented. He needs to learn that in your care he is safe, wanted, and important. Your love must be unchanging. You can't turn it on and off. Love gives your child lifelong emotional security.

Guidance comes next. You need to teach him what's right, and what's wrong. You need to set limits, so he knows what he can and cannot do. Sometimes you'll have to punish. Always use the mildest punishment that will teach the needed lesson. Reserve corporal punishment for his few most dangerous offenses. Don't laugh at a stunt one day, and swat him for it the next.

Freedom should start early. As your child grows up he needs to make decisions for himself. Loosen the apron strings as fast as you can safely. At each stage let him decide as many things for himself as possible. This is not easy because it is more fun for you when you make the decisions for him. But he needs the chance. By his late teens he should be independent.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My son is only eight months old. I want him to grow up to be an obedient child. Is there a booklet on obedience which would help me?"

Mrs. R. F.

(A) Yes. Get "Obedience," a pamphlet prepared by the Academy of Pediatrics. Have your doctor order it for you. The address is American Academy of Pediatrics, Evanston, Ill.

WHAT DOES

MULTIPLE LISTING

MEAN?

IT'S SIMPLE!

When you decide to sell, go to your favorite REALTOR. Tell him that you wish to place your place for sale in Multiple Listing. He will do the rest by referring your property to 130 other offices which will immediately search their files for the prospects you seek. Then there are photographs and complete descriptions in each member office.

When you want to buy you just reverse the process. Your REALTOR will show you his file of properties. With ONE CALL ON ONE REALTOR you have access to the very choicest listings in Marin County.

WHAT DOES

MULTIPLE LISTING

MEAN?

IT'S SIMPLE!

When you decide to sell, go to your favorite REALTOR. Tell him that you wish to place your place for sale in Multiple Listing. He will do the rest by referring your property to 130 other offices which will immediately search their files for the prospects you seek. Then there are photographs and complete descriptions in each member office.

When you want to buy you just reverse the process. Your REALTOR will show you his file of properties. With ONE CALL ON ONE REALTOR you have access to the very choicest listings in Marin County.

STATION WAGONS

'57 Buick $1295
A 4-Dr. hardtop Estate Wagon in arctic white with sky blue trim. Full leather interior absolutely like new. Fully equipped including: Dynaflow, radio, heater, power steering and power brakes. We sold new in '57 to its only owner and have serviced it since. A wagon that we'll back to the moon.

'57 Chevrolet $1195
210 model, 4-Dr. wagon with power steering, power brakes. Power Glide, radio, heater and other features. Turquoise and white with matching vinyl interior. Another one-owner car taken in on new '61 Buick from local family.

'56 Ford $895
Here's a really clean little 9-passenger Country Sedan. 4-Dr. all-metal wagon in light green and white with spotless matching vinyl interior. Don't laugh now—but we took this in from local preacher. Not a bump or ding on the car. V8 engine with Fordomatic, radio and heater.

'55 Chevrolet $845
A 4-Dr. Bel Air wagon with only 40,000 miles. Power steering, power brakes. Power Glide, radio, heater and ww tires. Fire engine red and white with matching red-white leather interior. One-owner car that we took in from Ross family on new '61 Buick wagon.

'51 Buick $250
Here's a rare car on the market —an older wagon with wood trim that's in top shape. We sold this wagon new in 1951 to its only owner. We've refinished the wood on it three or four times during the life of the car. This car is amazingly clean considering it's a 1951 car. Dynaflow, radio and heater. Full leather trim is clean enough for the most discriminating family.

'50 Chevrolet $195

STATION WAGONS

'57 Buick $1295

A 4-Dr. hardtop Estate Wagon in arctic white with sky blue trim. Full leather interior absolutely like new. Fully equipped including: Dynaflow, radio, heater, power steering and power brakes. We sold new in '57 to its only owner and have serviced it since. A wagon that we'll back to the moon.

'57 Chevrolet $1195

210 model, 4-Dr. wagon with power steering, power brakes, Power Glide, radio, heater and other features. Turquoise and white with matching vinyl interior. Another one-owner car taken in on new '61 Buick from local family.

'56 Ford $895

Here's a really clean little 9-passenger Country Sedan. 4-Dr. all-metal wagon in light green and white with spotless matching vinyl interior. Don't laugh now—but we took this in from local preacher. Not a bump or ding on the car. V8 engine with Fordomatic, radio and heater.

'55 Chevrolet $845

A 4-Dr. Bel Air wagon with only 40,000 miles. Power steering, power brakes. Power Glide, radio, heater and ww tires. Fire engine red and white with matching red-white leather interior. One-owner car that we took in from Ross family on new '61 Buick wagon.

'51 Buick $250

Here's a rare car on the market —an older wagon with wood trim that's in top shape. We sold this wagon new in 1951 to its only owner. We've refinished the wood on it three or four times during the life of the car. This car is amazingly clean considering it's a 1951 car. Dynaflow, radio and heater. Full leather trim is clean enough for the most discriminating family.

'50 Chevrolet $195

School To Present Public Lectures

Two public lectures are scheduled next month at Marin Country Day School, 5521 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

On April 5 at 8 p. m., Dr. Hilda Taba of San Francisco State College, will discuss "The Fourth R in Education." On April 27, Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, professor at San Francisco State College, will speak on "Are You Communicating?"

The programs are sponsored by the school's parents' group. Proceeds will be used for the scholarship fund.

Marinwood Recreation Will Be Discussed

The Marinwood Community Services District board will meet with the park and recreation commission later to discuss plans for the proposed community recreation center, it was announced at Thursday's board meeting.

Preliminary plans for the 10-acre site at Miller Creek and Idylberry Roads will be presented to the board by the park and recreation commission by the next community services board meeting, April 20, Mrs. Fred Bolding, manager and secretary, said.

Drake Junior Wins Speaking Contest

Miss Hughes, who spoke on "Our National Heritage Pattern for Today," will compete in the regional competition next Thursday at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Hollywood Trip Top Prize In Queen Contest

A four-day trip to Hollywood for two is the top prize offered this year in the annual West Marin Junior Livestock Show queen contest, which starts April 3, according to Mrs. Louise Giacomini, contest chairman.

The Hollywood trip includes visits to Disneyland, movie studios and Marineland of the Pacific with all expenses paid. Other prizes offered include a poloroid camera, portable television, stereo phonograph, portable typewriter, three-piece luggage set, $50 worth of sports clothes and a transistor radio.

Contestants have until March 31 to enter the contest. The girls get points by selling tickets. Others may sell the tickets and give the credit to the contestant of their choice.

The girl with the highest score at 5 p. m. on June 5, will be "Miss West Marin." The second and third highest in points will be Royal Princesses.

The try for points will continue until 2 p. m. June 25. There will be no change in the standings of the girls for queen, but contestants may win other prizes.

Under this new system, it is possible for all girls to win the Hollywood trip, Mrs. Giacomini said. If they win the top prize and have more points, these can be applied to other prizes.

The queen will be crowned at the coronation ball June 24. The queen and her princesses will be furnished royal gowns by the Lions Club. They will lead the parade June 25 in their coronation gowns.

Queen contestants must be residents of the West Marin area which includes Bolinas, Stinson Beach, San Geronimo Valley, Nicasio, Marshall and Tomales. They must be between 15 and 21 years of age.

Dance Groups Plan Election

Annual membership meeting and election of officers of the Marin Dance Cooperatives will be held Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in Olney Hall, College of Marin.

Among those proposed as officers for the coming year are Mrs. Richard S. Hahn, Belvedere; Mrs. Leo Jarvis, Corte Madera, vice chairman; Mrs. William Ford, Corte Madera, treasurer, and Mrs. David Dinsmore, Larkspur, assistant treasurer.

Attending will be members of the Ross Valley, Larkspur-Corte Madera and San Rafael dance cooperatives.

More than 3,500 teachers in Jordan received in-service training last year under a school improvement program started with American assistance.

KTIM WILL AIR INTERVIEWS WITH I-J STAFF

KTIM will observe the Independent-Journal centenial by presenting a series of 10 interviews with key I-J staff members.

The broadcasts will be aired Mondays through Fridays at 6 p. m., starting today.

KTIM news editor Karl Barron will interview I-J personnel in various departments to get behind the scenes in newspaper production.

Among those who will aid Barron on his guided voice tour of I-J operations will be mechanical superintendent Gordon Dixon and managing editor Jack Craemer.

Novato Grocery Will Be Sold

Ascherman's Grocery, at 1101 Grant Avenue, Novato, will be sold next month to store manager Curtis Smith.

Present owners are H. C. Ascherman Sr. of Vallejo and H. C. Ascherman Jr. of Petaluma. The father and son team also operates markets in Petaluma and Vallejo.

The sale officially will take place April 15, when Smith and his wife will take over operation and change the store name to Curt's Grocery. Aschermans have operated the market for 13 years; Smith has worked there for eight years.

On Hospital Staff

Army Sgt. Randall J. Crockett, 29, whose wife, Hanne, lives at 118-C Hawthorne Avenue, Larkspur, recently arrived in Germany and is now a member of the staff of the Army Eighth Evacuation Hospital.

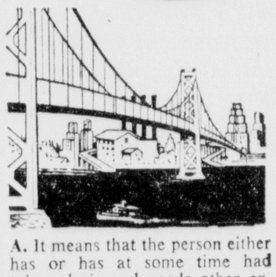
Water Pollution

- Big Babies
- T.B. Test
- Chewing Gum



Q. There is a lot of talk in our area about water pollution. Just how bad is this situation generally?

A. Just about as bad as it can get. A few years ago public health authorities estimated that every gallon of Ohio river water flowing past Cincinnati during certain seasons contained the equivalent of one quart of raw sewage. It's pretty much the same in all areas of dense population.

Q. One of my friends recently had a 10-pound baby. Was this due to the mother gaining too much weight during pregnancy?

A. There is fairly good evidence that weight gain by the mother during pregnancy has little influence on the size and weight of the baby. Women who have exceptionally large babies should have yearly checkups for diabetes. A considerable number of such women develop the disease in later life.

Q. What does a positive tuberculin test mean?

A. It means that the person either has or has at some time had tuberculosis and needs other examinations, including chest x-ray, to determine whether he currently has the disease.

Q. How can chewing gum be removed from hair?

A. You might try using any bland, pure cooking oil. Also, if gum is chilled with an ice cube, it becomes brittle and can be removed.

P.S. to Mrs. J.: Nurse your baby, if possible. There is nothing better than the producer-to-customer method.

School To Present Public Lectures

Two public lectures are scheduled next month at Marin Country Day School, 5521 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

On April 5 at 8 p. m., Dr. Hilda Taba of San Francisco State College, will discuss "The Fourth R in Education." On April 27, Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley, professor at San Francisco State College, will speak on "Are You Communicating?"

The programs are sponsored by the school's parents' group. Proceeds will be used for the scholarship fund.

Marinwood Recreation Will Be Discussed

The Marinwood Community Services District board will meet with the park and recreation commission later to discuss plans for the proposed community recreation center, it was announced at Thursday's board meeting.

Preliminary plans for the 10-acre site at Miller Creek and Idylberry Roads will be presented to the board by the park and recreation commission by the next community services board meeting, April 20, Mrs. Fred Bolding, manager and secretary, said.

Drake Junior Wins Speaking Contest

Miss Hughes, who spoke on "Our National Heritage Pattern for Today," will compete in the regional competition next Thursday at the Corte Madera Recreation Center.

Hollywood Trip Top Prize In Queen Contest

A four-day trip to Hollywood for two is the top prize offered this year in the annual West Marin Junior Livestock Show queen contest, which starts April 3, according to Mrs. Louise Giacomini, contest chairman.

The Hollywood trip includes visits to Disneyland, movie studios and Marineland of the Pacific with all expenses paid. Other prizes offered include a poloroid camera, portable television, stereo phonograph, portable typewriter, three-piece luggage set, $50 worth of sports clothes and a transistor radio.

Contestants have until March 31 to enter the contest. The girls get points by selling tickets. Others may sell the tickets and give the credit to the contestant of their choice.

The girl with the highest score at 5 p. m. on June 5, will be "Miss West Marin." The second and third highest in points will be Royal Princesses.

The try for points will continue until 2 p. m. June 25. There will be no change in the standings of the girls for queen, but contestants may win other prizes.

Under this new system, it is possible for all girls to win the Hollywood trip, Mrs. Giacomini said. If they win the top prize and have more points, these can be applied to other prizes.

The queen will be crowned at the coronation ball June 24. The queen and her princesses will be furnished royal gowns by the Lions Club. They will lead the parade June 25 in their coronation gowns.

Queen contestants must be residents of the West Marin area which includes Bolinas, Stinson Beach, San Geronimo Valley, Nicasio, Marshall and Tomales. They must be between 15 and 21 years of age.

Dance Groups Plan Election

Annual membership meeting and election of officers of the Marin Dance Cooperatives will be held Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in Olney Hall, College of Marin.

Among those proposed as officers for the coming year are Mrs. Richard S. Hahn, Belvedere; Mrs. Leo Jarvis, Corte Madera, vice chairman; Mrs. William Ford, Corte Madera, treasurer, and Mrs. David Dinsmore, Larkspur, assistant treasurer.

Attending will be members of the Ross Valley, Larkspur-Corte Madera and San Rafael dance cooperatives.

More than 3,500 teachers in Jordan received in-service training last year under a school improvement program started with American assistance.

KTIM WILL AIR INTERVIEWS WITH I-J STAFF

KTIM will observe the Independent-Journal centenial by presenting a series of 10 interviews with key I-J staff members.

The broadcasts will be aired Mondays through Fridays at 6 p. m., starting today.

KTIM news editor Karl Barron will interview I-J personnel in various departments to get behind the scenes in newspaper production.

Among those who will aid Barron on his guided voice tour of I-J operations will be mechanical superintendent Gordon Dixon and managing editor Jack Craemer.

Novato Grocery Will Be Sold

Ascherman's Grocery, at 1101 Grant Avenue, Novato, will be sold next month to store manager Curtis Smith.

Present owners are H. C. Ascherman Sr. of Vallejo and H. C. Ascherman Jr. of Petaluma. The father and son team also operates markets in Petaluma and Vallejo.

The sale officially will take place April 15, when Smith and his wife will take over operation and change the store name to Curt's Grocery. Aschermans have operated the market for 13 years; Smith has worked there for eight years.

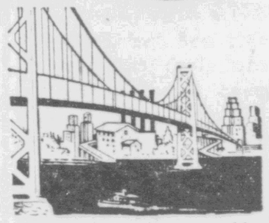
Water Pollution

- Big Babies
- T.B. Test
- Chewing Gum



Q. There is a lot of talk in our area about water pollution. Just how bad is this situation generally?

A. Just about as bad as it can get. A few years ago public health authorities estimated that every gallon of Ohio river water flowing past Cincinnati during certain seasons contained the equivalent of one quart of raw sewage. It's pretty much the same in all areas of dense population.

Q. One of my friends recently had a 10-pound baby. Was this due to the mother gaining too much weight during pregnancy?

A. There is fairly good evidence that weight gain by the mother during pregnancy has little influence on the size and weight of the baby. Women who have exceptionally large babies should have yearly checkups for diabetes. A considerable number of such women develop the disease in later life.

Q. What does a positive tuberculin test mean?

A. It means that the person either has or has at some time had tuberculosis and needs other examinations, including chest x-ray, to determine whether he currently has the disease.

Q. How can chewing gum be removed from hair?

A. You might try using any bland, pure cooking oil. Also, if gum is chilled with an ice cube, it becomes brittle and can be removed.

P.S. to Mrs. J.: Nurse your baby, if possible. There is nothing better than the producer-to-customer method.

Junior Life Saving Course Scheduled

Classes will run from 12 noon to 3 p. m. through March 31, with George Gustafson as instructor.

Those wanting to take junior life saving must be 12 years of age or over, or in grades seven through 10. To be eligible for senior life saving, one must be 16 years of age or over, or in or above the 10th grade.

A course in water safety will begin on April 8 at the Katherine Branson School pool in Ross. Classes will be from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. on Saturdays, April 8, 15, 22, and 29. Mrs. Thomas E. Gilboy is the instructor. Applicants for this course must be 14 years of age and hold Swimmer and Junior or Senior Life Saving Certificates.
